Lodge Staying Despite Upset Victory

NINE VOTES FOUR WAYS—Town Clerk Gertrude Nash shows the division of voting at Dixville, N. H., after first-in-nation midnight balloting in the presidential primary. Of the nine votes cast, Nixon and Lodge each received three write-ins, Gov. Rockefeller and Sen. Goldwater, both on the ballot, received two and one. Four years ago, this tiny White Mountain village voted 9-0 for Nixon. (AP Wirephoto)

Sweeps All Prizes in N. H. Vote

Envoy Nets 34 PC Of Party Ballots

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Undeclared and absent, Henry Cabot Lodge swept all the prizes in New Hampshire's leadoff primary today with a write-in vote triumph that shuffled the Republican presidential cards.

Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, said in Saigon he will not resign his diplomatic post despite his upset victory in the year's first polling-place test of Republican sentiment.

Takes All 14 Delegates

His write-in vote rolled over hard-running Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—and Lodge men captured all 14 New Hampshire delegate seats at the Republican National Convention.

Goldwater and Rockefeller—declared candidates who spent wintry weeks hunting votes in New Hampshire — challenged Lodge to come home and fight for the nomination.

The ambassador's answer:

No U.S. Trip Planned

"I do not plan to go to the United States. I do not intend to resign."

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, another write-in contender, ranked fourth with New Hampshire Republicans.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and former Minnesota Gov. Harold Stassen trailed far behind.

The most optimistic backers of the top declared candidates had not anticipated a sweep of the delegates for their man.

Goldwater, claiming victory in advance, said he expected to capture seven to 10 delegates.

Leads by 10,556

With votes from 288 of New Hampshire's 302 precincts counted, this was the Republican tally:

Lodge 30,659
Goldwater 20,103
Rockefeller 18,734
Nixon 15,042
Smith 2,721
Stassen 1,249

Lodge had captured about 34 per cent of the Republican vote.

It added up to a New Hampshire mandate to Lodge to challenge President Johnson—his boss as ambassador—for the White House.

There were a scattered few write-in votes for Govs. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and George Romney of Michigan.

About 90,000 Votes Cast

Despite the snowstorm, the Republican turnout totaled some 90,000 votes. Advance forecasts had placed it at 90,000 to 100,000.

Belli Rests Ruby Case, Is Surprise

DALLAS (AP)—The defense in Jack Ruby's murder case rested today in the first moment after the jury filed into the courtroom.

As soon as the jury of eight men and four women was seated, Judge Joe B. Brown asked chief defense counsel Melvin Belli who he was calling as his first witness today.

"The defense rests, your honor," Belli said.

Rebuttals Next

This marked the end of direct testimony. Both the defense and the prosecution have lists of rebuttal witnesses. They may be called later this week, depending on what each side does in the battle over Ruby's guilt or innocence in the slaying Nov. 24 of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

The last witness for the defense was Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Baltimore psychiatrist. Guttmacher was on the stand through most of Tuesday. His testimony, in which he gave the opinion that Ruby was not legally sane when he killed Oswald, formed the keystone of the defense case.

Belli had said previously he still has two or three witnesses. His move in resting the case came as a complete surprise.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade announced he would present rebuttal testimony. Had the state also rested without rebuttal witnesses, the defense would have been blocked from bringing its own rebuttal witnesses to the stand. Then the case, except for closing arguments, would have been ready to go immediately to the jury.

"An abnormal individual with an abnormal personality structure. . . under a very great emotional impact for two days . . . came upon thus perpetrator of the assassination (of President Kennedy ... a psychotic episode. . . with the homicide resulting."

Power, Phone Failures Press Relief Crews

Sutherland Girl Collapses Phoning Ambulance, Four Satisfactory Today

Four in a Tillson family almost lost their lives Tuesday from charcoal fumes as a result of the severe sleet storm which carried away power lines, disrupting telephone service and caused untold damage throughout Ulster County. The Kingston area was particularly hard hit.

Utility crews worked round the clock to restore power and telephone service and the Kingston police department was swamped with over 100 emergency calls. Kingston firemen responded to over 60 emergency calls as power lines crashed under the weight of sleet and falling trees and branches.

The Tillson family was using a charcoal burner to provide heat in their home after the power failure shut off the heating system.

George J. Moylan of the Moylan Ambulance Service, Rosendale, said Millard Sutherland, his wife and two daughters were rushed from their home to Benedictine Hospital suffering from the effects of fumes.

Satisfactory Today

At 10 a. m. today, the hospital reported the condition of the Sutherlands as satisfactory.

According to a spokesman for the ambulance service, Moylan received a telephone call put through by an operator from one of Sutherland's daughters who said, "We are all passing out, we don't know why?"

Moylan had been told the name of the girl, and he knew where the family resided. He said the conversation with the girl ended abruptly, when she apparently was overcome by the fumes.

An ambulance with attendants rushed to the Sutherland home, where they found the family overcome. Oxygen was immediately administered and continued on the way to the hospital here.

It was said that the power failure occurred about 10 a. m. Tuesday, and the heat and lights in the Tillson residence and many other sections of the area were shut off.

One woman was severely injured in Kingston when her car was struck by a falling limb on Washington Avenue and she was rendered unconscious. A police car was struck by a falling branch but the officer escaped injury.

Many Still Lack Power

Hundreds of home were still without heat and power today as weary public utility crews struggled to restore power lines following one of the worst sleet storms to sweep over a large portion of Ulster County in many years.

Kingston was particularly hard hit. Ice coated trees and large limbs continued to fall during the night, blocking many streets and carrying down power and telephone lines. Recurring damage in many sections caused streets to become blocked minutes after being cleared of trees and branches.

Minford A. Overfield, district supervisor for Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, called the storm the worst in his memory, and said it was difficult to predict when full service would be restored since new breaks were taking place this morning almost as fast as repairs were being made.

It was estimated that some 2,500 customers were without power in the Kingston-Kerhonkson-Saugerties area. Kingston crews were augmented by crews from Catskill and Newburgh and today six crews were sent in by Orange and Rockland Power Company, to assist the weary local crews.

Across the river in the Poughkeepsie District, Rhinebeck and Red Hook areas were particularly hard hit.

Hercules Shut Down

Hercules Powder Company shut down and sent the day workers home after their power failed about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Power failure on the 66,000 volt transmission line which runs along the mountain back of the Hercules plant, cut off power to the Hercules plant, radio station WGHQ, Hi-Lo and Pantry Markets and Cablevision shortly after 10 a. m. Tuesday. Service south of that area which is supplied by the line also was cut off and remained off throughtout the night.

An emergency generator in the steam power house at the Hercules plant was put into operation to supply emergency power but it was necessary to shut down the main plant and dismiss the workers. A spokesman today said it was hoped the 4 p. m. to midnight shift would be able to report today.

Shortly before 1 p. m. power was temporarily restored to radio station WGHQ but after about 40 minutes went off again and was not restored until 5:20 p. m. when Central Hudson crews completed emergency repairs. Station WKNY was also off the air for some time and Cablevision service had not been restored early today.

Also Supplies TV Service

Power to the Cablevision station is supplied from the line which services Hercules and other plants south of Kingston. A spokesman said reception would be restored as soon as power was available. Efforts to locate tem-

U. S. Asks Return of Craft, Crew

Link Apology, Protest To Russia Over Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States combined an apology with a protest in asking the Soviet Union to help speed the return of an American reconnaissance bomber and its three-man crew shot down Tuesday over Communist East Germany.

The crewmen parachuted from the plane after the shooting, the Defense Department said, but their fate was not known here. The plane was described as unarmed and on a training flight.

Crew Listed

The Air Force identified the three crewmen as Capt. David I. Holland, 35, the pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Holland of Holland, Minn.; Capt. Melvin J. Kessler, 30, instructor navigator, son of Abraham Kessler of Philadelphia; and 1st Lt. Harold W. Welch, 24, navigator, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Welch of Detroit.

Holland's wife lives at Toul-Rosieres Air Force Base, France, where the crew is stationed. Kessler's wife and two children reside at Toulaire near the base. Welch is single.

The request for Soviet help was made urgently Tuesday night by Assistant Secretary of State William Tyler to Georgi M. Kornienko, minister counselor of the Soviet Embassy.

Strong Oral Protest

The State Department announced that Tyler "delivered a strong oral protest" to the Soviet diplomat against "the precipitous action" by Soviet military forces in shooting down the RB66B.

Tyler "also expressed the U.S. government's regrets that the plane became lost and in-

Two Views Differ On Auditor Word Of Racing Group

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A state auditor's report on the affairs of the New York Racing Association (NYRA) "confirms my repeated assertions" of conflicts of interest, a Democratic senator contends.

The report will "completely exonerate the ... association from any conflict of interest charges or charges of maladministration," says the chairman of the NYRA.

Made Public Tuesday

The report, made public Tuesday by the state comptroller's office, was based on an investigation by a top state auditor at the request of Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney.

Mahoney acted after Sen. Seymour R. Thaler, D - Queens, charged in Senate speeches that trustees of the association were involved in conflicts of interest and unethical activities. Thaler made the statement that the report supports his assertions of conflict of interest.

The NYRA is a non-profit organization that operates thoroughbred race tracks at Aqueduct and Saratoga and is rebuilding the facilities at Belmont.

James Cox Brady, chairman of the NYRA, said he believed the report would exonerate the association "to any fairminded person."

He said the points made in the auditor's report "have been known to the legislative and

Rioting Cambodians Sack U. S., British Embassies

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Rioting Cambodians sacked the American and British embassies in Phnom Penh today and the U.S. Information Service library.

Several thousand Cambodians rampaged through the buildings during the three hours of disorder.

The flag over the U.S. Embassy was hauled down and burned, and the mob ran up the Cambodian flag.

Several cars belonging to members of the British Embassy were burned, and several American Embassy cars were overturned.

The mob shouted such slogans as "U.S. go home," "Down with imperialists and the Free World," and "Perfidious Albion (England)."

In Washington, State Department press officer Martin Cramer said no Americans were reported injured in the riot but several demonstrators were cut by shattered glass from windows stoned by the mob.

Cramer said U.S. charge d'affaires Herbert D. Spivack had protested to the Cambodian government.

The rioters broke through police barriers to sack the U.S. Embassy and the information library. They put a ladder against a wall to bring the American flag down.

Embassy papers were scattered through the streets.

Relations between the United States and Cambodia have deteriorated in recent months, and the government of Prince Norodom Sihanouk has moved closer to the Communist camp.

The Cambodian chief of state has recalled his ambassador from Washington and refused to accept further U.S. aid, accusing the United Stattes of supporting Cambodian rebels. Wash-

Officials Avoid CR March 3,000 in Number at Albany

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The civil rights march on Albany brought a happy throng of about 3,000 people to the snowy state capitol. They cheered and sang for laws to end poverty and discrimination — but officialdom didn't join the chorus.

"We got nothing but what we have always gotten—sympathy, promises and words," was the assessment of Tuesday's activities by Norman Hill, program director of the Congress of Racial Equality.

Undaunted, the crowd loudly cheered their leaders speeches—especially one in Spanish—at a final rally five blocks from the capitol, in an armory where the march started and ended.

They were still in a church-picnic mood as they mounted buses for the trip home to cities throughout the state, but mostly to New York City. Many were still humming the civil rights anthem, "We Shall Overcome."

The leaders promised more demonstrations throughout the state — rent strikes, marches, strikes and "direct action"—to press their demands for a $1.50-an-hour minimum wage, more

Some Streams Recede, 19 Dead

Brace for Worse Yet To Come on Ohio River

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Flood waters poured down many rivers and streams in the Midwest and East today, keeping thousands of persons from their homes, closing factories and blocking roads.

At least 19 persons died in floods and in widespread storms which hurled heavy rain, high winds and snow at hundreds of communities.

Highest Since 1954

The swollen Ohio River crested in Pittsburgh early today at 31.6 feet, highest mark since 1954. Then it began to drop slowly. The Allegheny also began to recede at many points.

But downstream along the mighty Ohio scores of cities and towns braced for the worst that was yet to come. The crest was expected at Cincinnati at noon Thursday and at Louisville, Ky., Friday.

Thousands of persons have been routed in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Southern Illinois, Pennsylvania and Missouri.

Sheperdsville Isolated

Sheperdsville, south of Louisville, was isolated by the worst flood there since 1937. About seven feet of water covered the business district. Driftwood swept down the Salt River and smashed store windows.

Some sections of Renovo, Pa., on the Susquehanna River, were reported under four feet of water.

A newsman who flew over southern Indiana reported brown, muddy water surrounded houses and barns and formed lakes where roads dipped into valleys.

In Utica, Ind., it appeared that the entire side of the town near the Ohio River lay under water. Houses could be reached only by boat.

The American Red Cross rushed disaster workers to Cincinnati, Ohio, and Louisville, Ky. The Ohio River overflowed its banks in Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky and threatened to be-

Search for Three In Holdup at Wappinger Home

State-wide search was under way today by authorities, seeking three men who forced their way into the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Suchich, Old Hopewell Road, Town of Wappinger, Tuesday night and escaped with $7,500 to $10,000.

Fishkill State Police said the Suchichs, their daughter, Diane, and a nephew and niece, Leslie and Nancy Patrick, were in the house at about 11:30 p. m. yesterday when the men, wearing ski hoods, forced their way into the residence.

Authorities reported Suchich

Britons Blow Top For Royal Birth, Queen, Son Well

LONDON (AP)—Britain broke out its flags and fired 41-gun salutes today to celebrate the birth of a son to Queen Elizabeth II.

Both the 37-year-old queen and the new prince—her fourth child and third son—were reported doing well. The baby was born Tuesday night at Buckingham Palace, a week earlier than expected. But "it was an easy birth," said Sir John Weir, the royal physician.

"Everything went well; there were no problems," reported the anesthetist, Dr. Vernon Hall.

The baby weighed 5 pounds, 7 ounces, making him the smallest of the queen's four children at birth.

The queen's husband, Prince Philip, went ahead with plans to represent the queen at the funeral of King Paul of Greece Thursday. The prince arranged to arrive in the Greek capital late this afternoon.

The names to be given the

2 Teacher Organizations May Join to Talk on Pay

Proposals to set up a combined meeting of the Kingston Teachers Association and the Kingston Teachers Federation to discuss collective bargaining, came as a highlight Tuesday at a meeting attended by 150 teachers at George Washington School.

The teachers approved a series of new meetings between the Staff Salary Committee, Superintendent of Schools W. Wendell Hoover and the teachers' committee of the Board of Education of the Kingston School District (Consolidated).

Donald Sweeney, chairman of the Staff Salary Committee, said the committee will also use the newly created grievance machinery to process a group grievance on behalf of all the teachers in the Kingston school system. Teachers, he said, will also be encouraged to attend Board of Education meetings and become more familiar with the workings of the Board.

At yesterday's meeting the teachers, who attended the special session despite the storm, vetoed a personal letter writing campaign to Board members, the coordinated use of a sick or personal business day, a proposal to stop all duties not directly associated with teaching, and the idea of sending colleges a letter informing them of Kingston's salary and morale situation.

"The 150 teachers unanimously went on record as being displeased with the salary proposition passed by the Board of Education at the March 25th meeting, granting teachers a raise from $200 for the first step to $400 for the highest step over

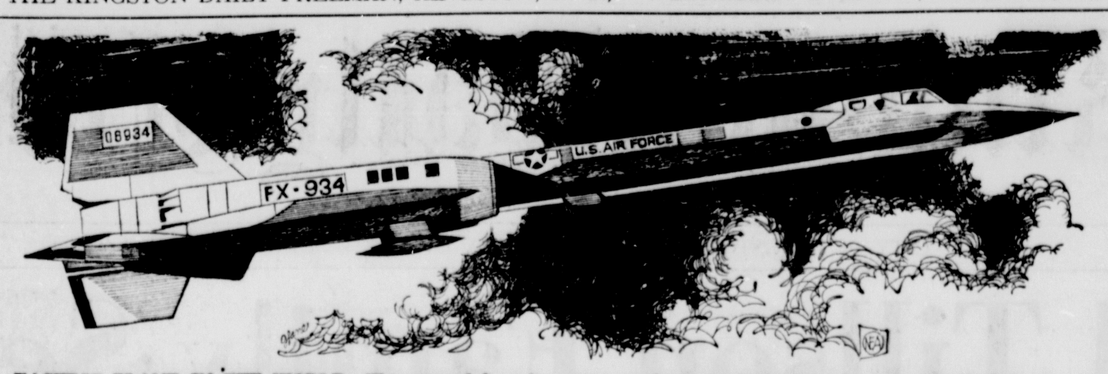
Cassius to Get New Draft Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army ordered today another pre-induction test of heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay.

The Army said a re-examination is necessary "because results of initial tests were inconclusive."

A review of the examination given Clay Jan. 24 at Coral Gables, Fla., has been completed, and the Army has determined that a new examination is needed, it said.

Where and when the new examination will be made has not been decided, a spokesman said.



FASTEST PLANE IN THE WORLD—This graceful craft, the A-11, can knife through the skies at speeds exceeding 2,000 m.p.h.—better than three times the speed of sound. The jet interceptor, in the works for about five years, was announced by President Johnson at his first televised news conference. The air time between New York and Moscow — a distance of 4,665 miles — would be cut by this plane to about 2½ hours. The President says the A-11's performance "far exceeds that of any aircraft in the world."

U.S. Ship in Red Port

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda reported Tuesday that an American ship has arrived in a Soviet Pacific port for the first time in 12 years.

She was the freighter Niagara, which the Soviet Communist party newspaper said docked Monday in Nakhodka, near Vladivostok, with 16,000 tons of wheat.

Phoenicia

Library Art Show

PHOENICIA—Frank and Maria Utrera, of the La Granja in Allaben, loaned the Phoenicia Library a collection of their son's John Segura, sculptures. The show is now open to the public during regular library hours.

John Segura, whose studio is in Miami, Fla., came to the United States in 1944 when he was 16 years old. Twenty years later, Segura's unusual relief-sculptures throb with the heart of Spain. Charging white horses, patient peasants, toiling fishermeh, matadors, dancers, all come alive under the sure hand of Segura.

John Segura has shown his work at the Hotel New Yorker in New York City earlier this year and is presently executing a commission at a hotel in Columbus, O.

Workman Leaves Prison

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Charles (the bug) Workman walked out of New Jersey's state penitentiary Tuesday, paroled after 23 years imprisonment for the gangland execution of Dutch Schultz, Prohibition Era beer baron.

Workman, 54, and his wife were whisked away in seconds by a sedan that had waited briefly for them in the rain. They spoke to no one.

The sedan had pulled up to the prison and beeped its horn four times. Within 10 seconds, Workman, a stocky gray-haired grandfather, and his wife climbed in and sped away. A young man was at the wheel. Only a few newsmen and some prison officials watched them leave.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

Library Story Hour Is Proving Popular

The children's room at the Kingston Library has had an active program for its school age children. Each Friday at 3:30 p. m. programs ranging from puppet shows to origami classes have been presented.

Each month a different civic organization sends volunteers to present the program.

This is the second year of spreading the program among several groups and it brings many new and exciting ideas to the story hour. Girl Scout Troop 98, the Junior Married Women at the YWCA, Girl Scout Troop 131, the Jayncees, B'nai B'rith and the Junior League have been in charge of various programs.

This Friday the Junior League will present a puppet show telling the story Stone Soup. Next Friday Mrs. Robert MacKinnon will provide a story program. All school age children are invited to the library on Friday at 3:30 p. m. to take part.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, March 11th, the 71st day of 1964. There are 295 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1811, the first wedding in the White House took place when Mrs. Lucy Payne Washington was married to Justice Thomas Todd of the U.S. Supreme Court. Mrs. Washington was a sister of Mrs. James Madison and widow of Philip Steptoe Washington, nephew of George Washington.

On this date

In 1794, the U.S. Navy was founded by an act of Congress authorizing construction of six warships.

In 1888, the great blizzard began its three-day rampage in which more than 400 lives were lost in a vast sector of the U.S.

In 1926, Mississippi passed a law prohibiting the teaching of evolution in state supported schools.

In 1941, French Indochina and Siam signed a pact ending their border dispute which had developed into an undeclared war.

In 1952, the first presidential preferential primary in the U.S. was held in New Hampshire.

Ten years ago ... the U.S. Army reported it had been subjected to direct threats by Republican senator Joseph McCarthy and his chief counsel, Roy Cohn, in efforts to gain preferential treatment for Lt. G. David Schine, a former investigator for McCarthy's subcommittee.

Five years ago ... President Eisenhower said the United States would not fight a ground war against Russia in Europe but declined to rule out nuclear war if hostilities resulted from the Berlin crisis.

One year ago ... President Kennedy said achievement of full employment was America's most pressing internal challenge.

Ridge Cows Listed In Lifetime Output

Lifetime food production careers for 22 Registered Holstein cows in New York State have been recorded in the official testing program records of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America. Two of them are owned by Ridgely Farms, Stone Ridge.

The individual cows reaching this outstanding level, approximately six times the lifetime output of the average U. S. dairy cow, are:

Ridgely Proud Muriel with a lifetime total of 164,564 pounds of milk and 6,133 pounds of butterfat, and Ridgely Proud Destiny with a lifetime total of 152,533 pounds of milk and 5,808 pounds of butterfat.

These cows join a list of nearly 1,900 officially tested Registered Hosteins that have topped the 150,000 lifetime mark.

THE ECONOMIC PATH

Most of us will approve of President Johnson's stand that we cannot enter discussions with a neighbor—Panama, in this case—with whom we no longer have diplomatic relations. This plainly is a hurdle which must be eliminated before an agreement can be reached in the canal dispute.

Whatever the final outcome, it can hardly be argued that the confrontation has been a total loss for the United States. This is not to deny the fact that we have made some blunders. But it is equally true that by its intransigence Panama has lost friends in Latin America, whereas our image has been little injured there. The way Panama mixed politics and violence with diplomacy in the canal dispute has disgusted some Latin officials, and few were taken in by Panama's transparently flimsy charges of U.S. aggression.

Even so, a pouting mood toward Uncle Sam seems to persist in many lands in Latin America. An economic approach may be the answer. Current negotiations over coffee prices, for example, could help us to regain lost favor. A good price for coffee is of crucial importance to Latin America's economy. More evidence of concern of such economic factors would greatly improve our Latin American relations.

MOST POPULAR TOPIC

The old complaint that "everybody talks about the weather, but . . . " needs a slight revision. Thanks to Mr. Bell's invention, never before in history have so many people been listening to talk about the weather.

In the 13 cities in the nation where you can dial a telephone number and hear a recorded forecast (changed every hour), the U.S. Weather Bureau reports that more than 235 million calls were made in 1963—19 million more than the previous record set in 1961.

Chicago had the highest total of calls in one day—450,298—on Jan. 23, 1963. (It was 18 degrees below zero that day, which might have had something to do with it.)

For the year, the top five cities were: New York, 42,201,678 calls; Detroit, 39,366,852; Washington, 32,679,751; Cleveland, 31,755,844; Chicago, 22,771,149.

Alas, the other half of the adage still holds true, electronic advances notwithstanding: No one does anything about the weather. And if you dial the weather number and don't like what you hear, you can't even talk back.

THE FEMININE VOTE

Except for an occasional rare case such as Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt or Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, women have been in the political shadows ever since this country's birth. This condition is not subject to quick change. As women have become more active in public affairs, however, they have moved steadily toward the light.

President Johnson has just given them a robust push forward by appointing 10 women to top government jobs, making the assertion that "this administration is not running a stag party." We are glad to see this reward for distaff service.

Our appreciation of the President's political instinct is deepened, too. Mr. Johnson's high reputation in this regard has been enhanced since he became chief executive. Although he is not begging the ladies to vote for him, those appointments he has just made may give them the general idea.

INFLATION IN EUROPE

Any doubts that Europe is caught in a full-blown inflation were dispelled when Britain raised the bank rate. The Bank of England will now charge its basic borrowers five per cent on loans. By this means the British government hopes to dampen the ardor of those who over-stimulate the economy with their borrowings.

Our own Treasury Department had warned London against taking this action, but out of selfish motives. Officials here knew that a higher British bank rate increases the difficulties of our own money managers. Great Britain, however, had to face the economic facts of life as they are today on that island and on the continent. Demand for goods is far outrunning the ability of producers, in both places, to meet it. This is one of the reasons why consumers had to be discouraged from using borrowed money to chase goods already scarce.

Most of our European allies are caught in this morass. Prices are rising in ominous fashion. Though the increase is as yet far from the runaway kind, the tendency to creep upward—as with fever in a sick person—causes concern in itself.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

RENASCENCE IN SAVANNAH

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA—It is an article of faith with New Frontier thinkers that what Professor J. Kenneth Galbraith calls the "private sector" is incapable of rehabilitating our cities. But it is a sure bet that Dr. Gailbraith has never made the electrifying acquaintance of Mrs. Mary Hillyer of Savannah. Without waiting on urban renewal funds from Washington, Mrs. Hillyer began an operation eighteen years ago that has transformed downtown areas of this ancient seaport, recovering old architectural beauties that had been hidden for more than a century under sagging roofs, pealing paint and mountainous piles of coal and refuse.

I spent one of the most fascinating mornings of my life listening to Mrs. Hillyer tell her story. An Illinois girl who was trained in Chicago as a singer, she came to Savannah when her husband, H. Hansell Hillyer, a developer of utilities, took hold of the run-down Savannah Gas Company. Mr. Hillyer's company possessed six gas tanks which reared their cumbersome bulk hard by the Savannah River amid some of the worst slums on the Atlantic seaboard. There were rooming houses in this old Trustees Garden Village area which slept snipyard workers in eight-hour shifts that used the beds around the clock.

Mrs. Hillyer, who was capable of translating her singer's love for live music into an equally discerning love for the "frozen music" of architecture, saw something in the properties of the Savannah Gas Company which no one else saw. Looking at earth that had been poisoned by tar, pitch and coal dust, she saw magnolias and camelias blooming in her minds eye. She envisioned dignified dwellings with eighteenth century lines in tumbledown shacks, and tasteful insurance campany offices in old warehouses. When the gas company razed five of its six great tanks after going over to piped-in natural gas (leaving one tank for a stand-by), she saw trim courts and lawns in their exposed foundations.

Taking her proposition to her husband, she obtained gas company permission to make over one old slum house. The idea was that if she couldn't rent it at a profit, her husband could use it as an office. Everyone told her that nobody who was anybody in Savannah would move to a downtown slum area to live in one charming building, but, luckily, she found a tenant from out of town, a doctor who had come south from New York's Greenwich Village. This gave her the courage to go on with her plan.

The directors of the gas company, however, couldn't see tying up money in a real estate venture. So, with her husband's backing, Mrs. Hillyer took the slums of the Trustees Garden Village area off the director's hands. Bit by bit Mrs. Hillyer's imagination became transformed into a new reality. Her method was to photograph a building, then take a pencil and sketch in her own ideas over its surface. She would clean up grounds, fumigate the rooms, tear out the plaster and ramshackle plumbing, cut through to solid heart-of-pine timber, and rebuild on a durable skeleton. In one place, where there was so much pitch and tar that nothing would grow, she dumped in 4,500 tons of dirt fill. She plundered the South for appropriate building materials going as far afield as New Orleans for wide clapboards. When the development began showing a neat profit after seven or eight years, she and her husband became conscience-stricken. So they sold the whole thing back to the gas company. Today, with twenty-five restored buildings, the company collects a $105,000 annual rental on a $750,000 investment. Rents that once brought in $11 or $17 a month now go for $75 up to $500 per month.

What Mary Hillyer did to transform ten acres of filth has proved wildly contagious. Mills B. Lane Jr., Georgia's biggest banker, is now rehabilitating a whole area to one side of Trustees Garden Village. Individuals have caught the idea. And visitors from all over the South come to see what is happening to Savannah.

If there were forty individuals like Mary Hillyer in the United States (with understanding capitalists to help), the cities of the nation could be rehabilitated without losing historic charm to the undiscriminating federal bulldozer. And Congress could give everybody another tax cut.

The DOCTOR SAYS

Look at It in Any Light: Women Are Stronger Sex

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In any population there are always a few more boy babies born than girl babies. But the death rate for boy babies is also a little higher than that for girls. As children grow, girls equal boys in muscular development until the age of puberty. That is why many girls come to be known as tomboys in their early years.

With puberty, the boys in general show greatly increased muscular development and the girls settle down to a quieter way of life. But which sex has the greater staying power? Any statistician will tell you that the number of wives who are widowed by the time they reach age 45 is about twice the number of husbands widowed by that age.

There are several reasons for this. Not only is the death rate from diseases of the heart and blood vessels higher in men than in women—it is also increasing at a greater rate. Death from peptic ulcers show a similar trend. Both categories of disease are aggravated by nervous tension. Women give vent to their emotions more freely than men and thus have less tendency to get high blood pressure or a heart attack.

Lung cancer is another disease that has shown a growing preference for men. Air pollution may play a part in causing this disease but, whereas the exposure to polluted air is about the same for men and women, men smoke more cigarettes, inhale more deeply and smoke more of each cigarette before discarding it.

Scientists are searching for other reasons for the increasing death rate in men at the prime of life.

Many men now do jobs with the aid of machinery that used to be done with their muscles. If they do not counteract this lessened muscular activity by taking up golf or some other sport they will become early victims of hardening of the arteries.

Add to this the higher death rate for men from venereal disease, alcoholism, homicide and accidents and the constant lowering of the death rate from childbirth and women's diseases. It becomes evident that the modern wife will have to co-operate with her husband's physician in keeping her spouse alive if she doesn't relish the idea of widowhood.

She can do this by encouraging him to have a physical checkup every year, by providing a peaceful home atmosphere and by seeing that he gets proper rest and nourishment.

Needle in the Haystack

Washington News

BY BRUCE BIOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Many Republican party leaders might be acutely embarrassed if New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller were to surprise them and win some major victories on the presidential primary circuit.

Some of these have been saying "anybody but Rockefeller" for nearly a year now. They are almost totally unprepared for the idea that he might somehow re-emerge as a serious prospect for the nomination.

MOST OF THEM SEEM TO BE BETTING that they will never have to suffer this embarrassment.

Yet some of these same politicians argue that Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater could take a spill in the big primaries. And in California, most significant of all, a Goldwater defeat can only mean a Rockefeller triumph.

Obviously there is a strange gap here in many leaders' thinking. They talk increasingly of the chance Goldwater may fail in the late-season primary tests. They seldom discuss what may happen to Rockefeller should he prove the agent of Goldwater failure.

But if he were to capture California and perhaps Oregon, the governor would largely erase fears that his remarriage is a grave political handicap. He would also destroy this issue as a cloak for other kinds of hostility toward him and his views.

VICTORY IN THE JUNE 2 California primary would give Rockefeller 86 delegate votes. On that same day he will get all or most of his own state's 92 votes. His maximum pickup could be 178—of 655 needed to nominate—just 41 days before the opening convention gavel at San Francisco.

Should Oregon's 18 votes and a likely 12 from friendly Vermont be tossed into his bag, the governor then would have a bedrock 208—nearly one-third of a winning total. This assumes no pickup at all from any other quarter.

Four days after the California voting, four state conventions will choose delegates. In two, Colorado (18 votes), and Hawaii (8), a fluid situation seems to exist.

Five days after California, the Governors Conference meets in Cleveland, Ohio. A triumphant Rockefeller would be a chief target of attention on a national stage.

The second weekend after California, seven states will choose delegates in convention. Again, politicians will be on the lookout for the main trend, in places like Connecticut, Minnesota, Washington.

The key signal from the western primaries will register also on hundreds of already chosen but largely uncommitted delegates in Massachusetts (34), New Jersey (40), Michigan (48), Ohio (58), and other states.

THE QUESTION IS SIMPLE—Could a Rockefeller fresh from victory in California and Oregon, strutting the Governors Conference stage in Cleveland, be ignored by Republican leaders in the decision-making days from June 2 to July 13?

Far from having ready answers, most of these men indicate—in telephone interviews drawn from across the country — that they have not even framed the question in their minds.

A Rockefeller success at the primary polls is the one eventuality they seem determined not to confront until and unless they must.

Defects in Primaries: Do We Need Uniformity?

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Americans who boast about their representative system of government must inevitably be at a loss to defend the so-called Presidential-preference primary system in the United States.

For what conclusion can be drawn, for instance, from the New Hampshire primary? Do the results mean that the Republican party has been revealed as an organization the majority of whose members adhere to any particular set of principles? Does any candidate for the nomination, whether he made speeches or merely allowed his name to be written in on the ballot, emerge with a preference expresed by a majority of the votes cast? Also, why doesn't the state of New Hampshire require a "run-off" primary to determine the winner as between the two persons who in the first contest received the highest number of votes but not a majority?

These questions illustrate the confusing and inconclusive nature of the primary election held in New Hampshire this week. It can hardly be said that the election reflects the viewpoint of the Republican party as such, and it would be difficult to write a party platform based on the speeches made by the various candidates striving for the Presidential nomination on the Republican ticket.

The device of a "run-off" for local offices is widely used today in those states where one party dominates and where the tendency is for several candidates to enter the primary race, since winning the party nomination generally is tantamount to election. There is no objection, of course, to a preliminary skirmish, as it gives everybody a fair chance. But once the vote has been split up, it is logical for another election to be held to determine the voter preference as between the two who polled the largest number of votes without either getting a majority.

The theory that members of each party shall vote in a primary to choose their respective nominees for the Presidency is sound, but there are many defects in state laws about determining who is eligible to vote in a party primary. It is possible in some states, for instance, for a citizen who is not a Republican to exercise as much power in a primary election as a citizen who has identified himself with, and voted for, the Republican party in preceding elections.

Another defect in the primary system is that the results are not always binding on the chosen delegates when they meet in the national party convention. As soon as it is apparent that one candidate for the Presidency is approaching a majority in the balloting, the delegates from states committed to other candidates suddenly desert the men to whom they are "pledged" and climb on the "bandwagon."

There is an additional weakness. Only a few states have enacted primary laws. Hence, the delegates from other states wield the real power in the conventions.

Clearly, there is ned for a uniform system of eligibility requirements and for a Federal law which would require a national primary election, covering every state. "Run-off" elections could be provided in those instances where no candidate received a majority.

President Wilson was one of the early champions of the primary system, but he didn't think the prevailing method of choosing delegates to the national party conventions was a good one. In a message to Congress in December, 1918, he said:

"I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may choose their nominees for the Presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties; and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for Congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the Senate of the United States, the Senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees, and the candidates for the Presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect."

The present-day national conventions are somewhat more representative than the ones of a few decades ago — which were almost always controlled by party bosses — but there would be an improvement if, in making up the delegations, more responsibility were placed on members of each party in Congress or those who aspire to seats in either house. For they themselves would have to appear on the ballot in the same or future elections. They are familiar with national issues, and would be more likely to select someone who would be expected to win or at least be better qualified to hold the office of President than the candidate nominated by so many puppet delegates who customarily go to the national party conventions.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

Robert Ripley, Believe It or Not, died over a decade ago. But his work goes on. The newest is a Dell packet book called "A Catholic's Believe It or Not." It was written by Raymond James Paul, which is really three men. Some of the items are interesting:

Paul VI was the first cardinal named by John XXIII. When John died, Paul was elevated to the papacy by the largest College of Cardinals of all time — 80 members. The first parochial school in the U. S. was St. Mary's, founded in Philadelphia in 1782. St. Jerome, who worked where the Inn stood in Bethlehem, gathered 35,000 texts of the Bible before writing the Roman Catholic version around the year 400.

Some nuns wear wedding bands to symbolize their marriage to Christ. The Fisherman's ring of each Pope bears the image of St. Peter fishing from a boat. It is encircled, in gold, with the name of the Pope who wears it. When he dies, the ring is removed and smashed, so that it can never be used again as a seal.

When John Fisher was beheaded, Anne Boleyn asked for the head and slapped it. One of the teeth pierced her finger. The wound never healed. Later, she was beheaded by Henry VIII. St. Dympna is the patron of those afflicted with emotional illness. Few recall the name of the man who replaced Judas as an apostle. He was St. Matthias.

St. Francis Xavier baptized so many that, on one occasion, a friend had to raise his arm so that he could make the Sign of the Cross. St. Ignatius Loyola, who founded the Jesuit order, was arrested in Spain for doing it. He never used the word "Jesuit." It was a term of derision used against him.

True Christianity assumes many forms. St. Sabinus had his hands chopped off by a Roman governor. Years later, the governor had a serious eye disease. Sabinus placed the stumps of his wrists on the governor's eye lids. The governor was cured.

Anyone who has sentenced a person to death cannot become a priest. A layman can be elected Pope. Before he assumes office, he must be ordained a priest and consecrated as a bishop. When John XXIII was a young priest, he served with the Italian medical corps in World War I. The Vatican did not approve of priests who took sides, and Father Roncalli's rise in the Church was slow.

Soon after Sixtus II was crowned Pope, he was slain on his throne. The practice of Catholics to abstain from meat was not made obligatory until the 9th century. Christians were ashamed of the manner of Christ's dying, and the crucifix was not displayed with pride until about the year 450.

The baptismal font is made of stone, symbolizing the rock from which Moses caused water to flow. Six Popes in the past 1900 years have resigned.

Few Popes were as truly beloved as John XXIII. When he died, 83 nations were represented at the funeral, not counting world leaders of the Protestant and Jewish faiths.

The word rosary comes from the Latin rosarium — wreath of roses. The first American Christmas carol was written in the 17th century by Father Jean de Brebeuf, who penned it in the language of the Huron Indians. Father Gabriel Richard was elected to Congress from the Territory of Michigan in 1823.

Saint Fabian attended the election of a Pope in 236. A dove flew into the conclave and settled on his head. He was elected by acclamation. Church law forbids a Pope to name his successor. In the Civil War, 571 nuns served both sides as nurses. The reason the mass has been said in Latin is to prevent the true meaning from being distorted by interpretation.

The first American college to combat Communism by studying it was St. Joseph's of Philadelphia in 1935. The reason all Popes wear a triple crown is symbolic of their three tasks: teacher, lawmaker, judge. The law of the Catholic Church forbids females from taking direct part in any ritual.

The Bible was written by 42 writers in three languages. It required 1,300 years from start to completion. Father Dominique Pire, O.P. was the first to win the Nobel Peace Prize. It was awarded in 1958 for his labor in aiding displaced persons. The only Caesar to admit defeat by Jesus was Julian. As a lance pierced him he cried out: "Galilean, thou hast conquered."

The Pope's infallability does not mean he cannot make a mistake. It means that he cannot misguide his church in matters of faith or morals. The first Negro bishop was personally consecrated by Pius XII. St. Paul the Hermit lived to be 113, and spent 90 of those years in the desert.

At Sante Fe, Our Lady of Light chapel was finished in 1870. There was no stairway to the choir loft. A bearded stranger appeared with donkey and carpenter's tools and said that he had come to build one. It is spiral, makes two 360-degree turns, and has not visible means of support. Experts cannot even identify the wood in it. It has 33 steps.

Even the Pope is obliged to go to confession. About 25 nationalities are represented among Popes. Seven lived, not in Rome, but France during their reigns.

Therapy Termed Success

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Kentucky child welfare officials are pleased with the success of a group therapy program for young delinquents.

In the last year, 80 to 90 per cent of the youngsters who received the group treatment stayed out of trouble after their release from state homes.

Under such a program, groups of 10 youngsters meet daily with a leader to discuss how they worked and played together, got along with their supervisors and how their attitude affected this.

Dear Abby . . .

Emphatic Truth!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We would like your opinion of what the chances for happiness are in a marriage between a man of 36 and a woman of 55. They are both wonderful people. There is no problem of money on either side. They've been close friends for many years. (She taught him in high school.) Their families and friends never dreamed there could be a romantic interest between them, although he has been her constant escort. They have announced their plans to wed this summer. We feel that this happiness will be short-lived because she will be an elderly lady while he is still in the prime of life. What is your opinion?

THE FAMILIES

DEAR FAMILIES: Some men are "old" at 40, while some women are still "young" at 70. All that is necessary for a successful marriage is that each partner needs the other for something. This appears to be the case. They are both old enough to add, so don't worry about their future.

• • • •

DEAR ABBEY: That letter from the mother who wrote that her teen-age daughter said she was spending the night at her girl friend's house, and who later found out she lied, struck close to home with me. I did the same thing when I was 16, two years ago. The mother asked you, "Why would a girl lie about something like that?" And you replied, "Because she didn't have the courage to tell the truth." I can tell you why I lied, Abby. Because if I told my mother I had a date, she would ask me who with, where I met him, who his parents were, and lots of questions like that, so rather than go through the third degree, I lied. If parents didn't have to know the life history of every boy their daughters dated there wouldn't be so much lying.

HAD TO LIE

DEAR HAD: If a girl can't tell her parents who the boy is, where she met him, and a few other pertinent facts, she has no business going out with him. And any boy who permits a girl to lie to her parents is bad news.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, better off financially than most of my friends and relatives. When they go out to dine I am often invited to join them. Naturally, one of the men present will ask for the check. It would be embarrassing for the men, and also for me, if I were to ask for the check. Yet, I want to carry my own weight. What can be done to reciprocate? Don't advise me to entertain them at home. I haven't the energy.

MRS. R.

DEAR MRS. R: Invite your guests to one of your favorite dining spots. When you telephone for the reservation, ask the maitre d' to instruct the waiter to bring NO bill to the table. Arrange to pay the bill privately at another time.

LEGION AUXILIARY PROJECT—The Ulster County Committee of the American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a magazine drive throughout the county to raise funds for the purchase of hospital equipment such as that pictured above. Equipment is distributed to the 13 units in the county for loan to those in need in their respective townships. Articles remain the property of the Ulster County Committee and should a unit disband it is returned to the county auxiliary for distribution to another unit.

President Arturo Illia agreed Monday night to West Germany's request for the 61-year-old doctor even though the two countries have no extradition treaty.

Not All Favored Move

School Removal Seen as End Of NR Integration Disputes

By VIRGINIA CLAIR
New Rochelle Standard Star
Written for Associated Press

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—A symbol of segregation has vanished from this New York City suburb. The Lincoln School has been demolished.

The rubble of the 66-year-old building has been hauled from the four-acre lot, to the joy of many, but not all.

Get Free Transportation

There were 485 pupils at Lincoln—94 per cent Negro—before a 1961 federal decree permitted transfers to other schools in this city of 82,000. The youngsters have been distributed since among 11 other elementary schools. Free bus transportation is provided.

Closing of the school was approved last year by the Board of Education after enrollment dropped below 200 following integration.

The federal ruling, by Judge Irving R. Kaufman, ordered the school desegregated. It set a precedent for integration of schools in the north, where segregated residential patterns resulted in segregated education.

The decree climaxed a 20-year controversy that exploded in 1960.

Whites Could Transfer

Kaufman said the school board had "gerrymandered" (intentionally maintained) school attendance to keep Negroes at Lincoln. As late as 1949, he noted, white children, but not Negroes, were permitted to transfer out.

David G. Salten, who became superintendent of schools in 1962, believes demolition was a wise move since the building had become a symbol to the Negro community.

Demolition, scheduled three years ago, was deferred because the plan also proposed a new school — with the same problems—on the same site.

This two-fold program gave impetus to the Negro community to seek an answer from the Federal Court about Lincoln school.

Says Move Was Taken

Not all parents wanted their children sent elsewhere. These included George Carter, the last president of the Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association.

Carter is willing to defer final opinion pending testing reports comparing Lincoln and other schools. He believes the integration is "a token" because the pupils cannot participate in extra-curricular programs and still catch the bus home.

Mrs. Wilbur Taylor, in whose child's name the federal case was brought, says she is pleased with the results.

"All the bug-a-boos that were thrown at us haven't materialized," she said. "Bus transportation helped the situation and mothers who were afraid of the move realize it wasn't as difficult as they anticipated."

End of an Era

Atty. Paul Zuber, who represented Lincoln pupils in the federal courts, thinks demolition has erased the city's battleground for integration.

"It should be the end of an era in New Rochelle," he said. "Everyone should forget the symbol and think about quality education which the community realizes is essential and administrators are willing to work for."

Dr. Salten believes the transfer of Lincoln pupils was a good thing. He says the problems are being met so the schools may achieve genuine integration.

Hopes to Empty Rio

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Gov. Carlos Lacerda has declared a half holiday Friday afternoon in an effort to drain the crowd away from a rally at which President Joao Goulart is to speak.

Lacerda and Goulart are bitter enemies, and the government declared a holiday the last time the president spoke in Rio. As a result, downtown Rio was emptied several hours before and the crowd for Goulart was greatly diminished.

At the rally late Friday Goulart is scheduled to sign a land reform decree calling for the expropriation of all land within six miles of either side of federal roads, railroads and waterways.

Cash for Trading Stamps Wins Nod in Legislature

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A proposal to make trading stamps worth cash instead of merchandise has won final legislative approval.

The measure, approved by the Assembly Tuesday and sent to Gov. Rockefeller, also would place trading-stamp companies under state regulation.

The cash redemption feature would permit persons to obtain cash for stamps having a total value of $1 or more rather than merchandise if they so desired.

Every trading stamp company doing business in the state would be required to register with the secretary of state and to obtain a bond to guarantee that it will fulfill its obligations.

The bill cleared the Senate Feb. 18 by a vote of 54-1. It passed in the Assembly without dissent.

The trading-stamp bill was among several measures that received legislative attention Tuesday. There were these other developments:

Land Sale — The superintendent of public works alone would set the terms for sale of property seized by the state for highways and later found unnecessary, under terms of a bill given final legislative approval yesterday by the Senate. The vote was 32-22 after a lengthy debate, with Democrats casting all the negative votes. Sen. Manfred Ohrenstein, D-Manhattan, said some control should be placed over the superintendent's decision on terms.

Racing Employment — The Senate voted unanimous approval of a bill that would ease some of the restrictions on public employes holding part-time jobs at race tracks. The measure would permit any government employe hired by a track before May 1, 1954, to retain his job regardless of how much he was paid by the government. Under the present law, a public employe earning more than $7,500 a year may not also work at a track. The measure was sent to the governor.

Police—The Senate approved unanimously a bill that would establish a 60-day jail sentence and a $50 fine as the penalty for anyone who knowingly gives false information on a crime or incident to police. The measure, sponsored by Sen. Leighton A. Hope, R-Cortland, was sent to the Assembly.

DAKAR, Senegal (AP) —The 14-nation African-Malagasy union has decided to transfer its political activities to the Organization of African Unity.

NEW YORK (AP) — Today's Cinderella story concerns a Viennese architect-turned-actress of mature years and gentle manner. The only trouble with the story is that Cinderella has not yet made it to the ball.

A fortnight ago the Academy Award nominations were announced, and one of the nominees was Lilia Skala for her role as the vinegary nun in "Lilies of the Field."

Thrilled by Nomination

She received congratulations at New York's City Center Theater, where she works in the lost and found department. She is still there among the neglected galoshes and forgotten umbrellas, toiling for $1.50 per hour.

Her reaction to the nomination?

"Of course I am thrilled. I did not expect it. I did not even think about it. I have known too many disappointments in my life to count on anything."

What a life it has been. It began in Austria, but don't ask her how long ago.

Lilia longed to act as a girl, but her parents had other ideas. She studied architecture and engineering at Dresden University and graduated with honors. "I was the first woman engineer in Austria," she says proudly.

After her marriage to a hat manufacturer, she appeared with Max Reinhardt and in Austrian films. She came to America after the Hitler takeover, and her acting roles were interspersed with jobs as waitress, saleswoman, babysitter, etc.

Much Idleness

She had successful times — featured roles in "Call Me Madam" and "The Diary of Anne Frank" on Broadway and important parts in television. But you gather that there were also long periods of idleness.

Miss Skala was enduring such a period a year and a half ago when she was called about a role in the touring company of "A Far Country."

Meanwhile, she read a newspaper item that Ralph Nelson was casting for a new film to star Sidney Poitier, "Lilies of the Field." She had worked for Nelson on the "I Remember Mama" television series, and she sent him a note that she would like to be in his film.

Faced with the dilemma over a sure job and a nebulous one, Miss Skala did what she always does in times of trial. She prayed.

Nelson came through with the plum role of the mother superior. Did her fortunes change?

"No," she says. "Last year I did one co-starring role in 'The Defenders' and one soap opera. It was my worst year since I had come to America."

But things seem to be picking up. Stanley Kramer has said he wants her for "Ship of Fools." The Oscar night April 13 will bring her more attention. Will she be in Santa Monica for it?

"Only if they send me," she says. "I can't afford it myself."

Sims Attends Parley

The President's Physical Fitness Council met last Friday and Saturday in Albany at the State Educational Department for lectures and movies, and at Delmar High School for the gymnasium and swimming pool fitness program.

Charles "Bud" H. Sims, YMCA physical director attended both sessions, that had an attendance of 265 physical educators from New England and New York State. Dr. Thomas E. Cureton, director of Physical Education at Illinois University, gave a talk on physical fitness giving the latest data from his research on fitness in the university program. He also had colored slides and verbally gave the correct positions that were being developed in the calisthenic work out.

The local YMCA now has two large physical fitness classes for men and physical director Sims states that he soon will have a new course of body building and will add more classes for men according to the interest shown.

Physical Fitness classes for grammar school boys are now in progress. The local Y has more gym apparatus and of the latest type and is now doing much for the boys in body development, he said. Recreation classes in basketball, floor hockey and competitive games are also in the Y program, but a lot of stress will be place on physical fitness, Sims said.

Ordinance Repealed

LOVELL, Wyo. (AP)—It has been nine years since Lovell decided to put in parking meters.

But none of the meters, 224 in all, has been installed.

Because businessmen feared they would drive shoppers to other towns, the parking meter ordinance passed in 1955 has been repealed. A firm which supplied the meters for $14,448 fought up to the Wyoming Supreme Court to get its money.

Mayor Cal Taggert said Tuesday the money finally has been paid.

That doesn't mean Lovell intends to put the meters up.

Expert Advises Push Bidding

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In one of the articles in the new bridge magazine Modern Bridge, one of our leading experts advises: "Be consistent in overbidding or underbidding. Don't blow both hot and cold."

He continues: "I do have one strong feeling on the subject. That is, PUSH TO CLOSE GAMES AND SLAMS! I have found that it is generally much easier to play a close contract than to defend against one and that quite often you will be presented your contract on a silver platter even though it look completely hopeless when dummy was first spread.

"Now take a look at the South hand only. You respond one diamond to your partner's opening club bid. He jumps to three diamonds and even though you don't play this bid as an absolute force your eight high-card points suddenly take on considerable lustre.

"Your partner surely holds four diamonds and at least five clubs. He should have a singleton and the odds are that it will be in hearts. My choice is an immediate Blackwood bid to check for aces. This gets to a slam if partner has two aces."

The whole hand is shown here and you will note that six diamonds is a very easy contract to bring home. Furthermore, you will note that it makes in spite of the fact that North holds what turns out to be a totally useless king of spades.

Acted Like a Minister

LOUISVILE (AP) — Unaware of his identity, two golfers invited the Rev. Lawrence Cater to join them in a threesome.

The cleric slashed his first drive far off the side of the fairway. Without a word, he started off to find the errant ball.

A moment passed and one of the golfers inquired: "Hey, Mister, you're not a minister, are you?"

"Why do you ask?" countered Mr. Cater. "I don't have on the garb of a clergyman."

"I know," replied the questioner, "but if you weren't a preacher, you'd have said a lot more about that shot."

'64 CHEVROLET—THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMER

Chevrolet Impala Convertible
Nothing feels steep in a Chevrolet Impala (including the price!)
A hill is just something to admire the view from when you're driving a '64 Chevrolet. With engines up to a 425-hp V8*, getting from one side to the other wouldn't be much easier if somebody had put a tunnel there.
And if Chevrolet can go over a whole mountain so you hardly feel it, you can imagine how it goes over plain old bumps. Jet-smooth, of course. We put a big coil spring at all four wheels (not to mention 700 or so sound and shock absorbers throughout the body and chassis) to soak them up just as fast as they come.
As you'd expect, Chevrolet turns in its usual fine performance with everything inside that big beautiful Body by Fisher, too. All kinds of stretch-out room and wide thick-cushioned seats that let you get in a full day's driving without fatigue. Yards of deep-twist carpeting and elegant fabric and vinyl upholstery that make you feel good just being there.
With all its looks and luxury, you can see how anyone might get the idea that this great highway performer is a high-priced car. Unless, of course, they happened to look first at its reasonable Chevrolet price.
And your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to show you that, wherever you drive, the price is probably what you'll feel least of all.
*Optional at extra cost.

Gov. Challenges Lodge to Debate In Oregon Vote

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller challenged Henry Cabot Lodge today to a series of television debates in the Oregon primary.

The governor told reporters that Lodge, a surprise winner in the New Hampshire primary, can't leave his name in the Oregon primary and stay on as ambassador to South Viet Nam.

The governor commented before taking off for California, where he will resume campaigning in that state's preference primary which will be held June 2.

The governor sought to designate the Oregon primary on May 15 as a key test in the competition for the Republican nomination for president.

Rockefeller attributed the ambassador's victory in large measure to what he described as Lodge's role as "a favorite son" of New England.

In observations at a news conference Tuesday night, Rockefeller:

—Said he was "very happy about the outcome" in New Hampshire because he had started as a 5-to-1 underdog, and he did better than expected.

—Saw encouraging portents in connection with his divorce and remarriage, which have been considered political liabilities. He said the primary showed he could "get support from an important segment of the voters."

—Viewed the primary results as "a victory for moderation" and rejection of extremism, although he did not associate Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, a conservative, with extremism.

—Said he still considered Goldwater, not Lodge, his chief opponent.

Killed in Fall

MONTICELLO, N. Y. (AP) —A fall down the basement stairs of his home took the life Monday night of Capt. Charles S. Irvine, 64, supervisor of officers at Woodbourne Correctional Institution.

Irvine died in Monticello Hospital of a fractured skull four hours after the accident.

Belli Rests . . .

on a charge of slaying Oswald. His defense is temporary insanity. Belli earlier announced Ruby would testify but indicated Tuesday he would not call him to the stand.

"I don't think he (Ruby) was capable of distinguishing between right and wrong or knew the nature and quality of his act at the time of the homicide," Guttmacher testified.

The psychiatrist testified that Ruby has suicidal impulses which could lead him to try to kill himself. He said Ruby might go berserk in the courtroom and possibly even try to end his life in the presence of jurors if put on the witness stand.

Guttmacher was one of several psychiatrists who examined Ruby. Two others have testified they believe Ruby has organic brain damage and suffers from psychomotor epilepsy.

Dr. Walter Bromberg, clinical director of Pinewood Psychiatric Hospital in Katonah, N.Y., may be called. Chief defense counsel Melvin M. Belli said he is holding Bromberg as an "ambush witness" to rebut whatever psychiatric testimony the prosecution may present against Ruby.

After Guttmacher, the defense's star witness, finished testifying, Belli commented, "I'd say we had a very good day."

Thieves Make Haul At Ice Cream Co., Service Station

Some person, or persons, who broke into the Terpening Ice Cream and Candy Co., 142 Abeel Street, had eyes for Easter candy, police learned today.

Some $35 worth of candy and a quanity of potato chips were taken. Entrance was gained through the breaking of a window on the Dock Street side of the building.

Another overnight burglary was reported at the Lamoreaux gas station, 451 Albany Avenue, where, police were told, some $40 was taken from a cash drawer. Entrance was gained after a lock was knocked off a window.

Unearth Ancient Villa

ROME (AP) — The suburban villa where Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius is believed to have been born in 12 A.D. has been discovered in excavations for a hospital.

Easier to Keep Talking

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators are finding it easier than they apparently expected to keep up the flow of talk necessary to prevent a quick vote on the motion to take up the civil rights bill.

In the first two days of debate they had to deliver only three of their planned initial round of speeches. So others are still in reserve.

Lodge Staying

staged a write-in drive of their own, in what Gov. John W. King called "an expression and recommendation" that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy become the party's nominee for vice president.

Its leaders had some last-minute qualms, fearing a Kennedy write-in that topped that for President Johnson would embarrass the President.

The outcome quieted those fears. The figures read this way:

Johnson 21,898
Kennedy 17,683

New Hampshire voters also approved their state's big gamble: a sweepstakes designed to raise money for education.

Lottery Succeeds

The local option vote on the sale of sweepstakes tickets — conducted all over New Hampshire but effective only in the 42 communities with state liquor stores or race tracks, produced a lopsided yes—about 3½ to 1.

Rockefeller scoffed at Lodge as "a favorite son from New England" and Goldwater called him an ineffectual campaigner.

But the Arizona senator confessed "I must have goofed somewhere" in the New Hampshire campaign.

The New York governor tempered his reaction with compliments to New Hampshire for "the victory of moderation."

"I think the voters of New Hampshire have rejected extremism," the governor said.

He called on would-be candidates to "come on in and take their positions on the issues and join the debate."

Goldwater accused Lodge of "staying out of the country to avoid having to say anything."

Both Rockefeller and Goldwater said they will head for California this week to hunt votes in that state's June 2 primary.

The governor opens a campaign thrust today, Goldwater on Friday.

Rockefeller and Goldwater—neither of whom had ever lost an election before—glumly accepted New Hampshire's verdict from their headquarters in New York and Washington.

Will Keep Fighting

Both candidates insisted they would keep fighting for the nomination.

Through his son, George, Lodge relayed his thanks to New Hampshire voters—but gave them no hint of his plans.

"They have paid me the highest of compliments and I shall very carefully consider their action and all its meaning," he said.

Son Thinks He Will

The younger Lodge added this forecast: "If my father is called on by his party in convention there isn't any question that he will accept gratefully and humbly and enthusiastically."

But George Lodge—who ran unsuccessfully for the Senate from Massachusetts two years ago against Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.—said "I really don't know" whether or when Lodge will quit his diplomatic post and plunge formally into the race for the nomination.

"He takes his responsibility in Viet Nam very seriously," Lodge said. "It would depend on what happens in Viet Nam and what happens here. He has to measure his duties."

Lodge added he expects the New Hampshire showing will "greatly strengthen efforts in 28 other states to draft my father."

The ambassador's name will be on the ballot in Oregon's May 15 presidential primary. That does not take a candidate's approval, and the withdrawal deadline passed Monday.

Lodge had a hand 12 years ago in the victory of another undeclared candidate over another New Hampshire campaigner. That propelled former President Dwight D. Eisenhower into the race for the 1952 nomination. He beat the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio in New Hampshire.

Lodge's New Hampshire backers used television films and a massive mail campaign to promote their absent candidate. When the votes were counted, his state chairman confessed he was amazed.

"I didn't think we'd win and I still don't believe it," said J. Richard Jackman of Concord.

2 Teacher . . .

a two-year period.

The teachers also voted for a series of suggested activities to underscore their displeasures toward the board's salary plan.

Commenting on the collective bargaining phase of the teachers program, Chairman Sweeney noted that the KTF president, Randolph Siegel had said he would determine the wishes of the KTA members concerning a joint meeting to discuss the collective bargaining plan. He also pointed out that Thomas Mannix, president of the KTF said that group already was on record as favoring the establishment of collective bargaining and that the KTF would eagerly look forward to a joint session if it could be arranged.

Sweeney Explains

In remarks which prefaced the discussion on the salary situation, Sweeney explained how the teachers first learned of the Board of Education's salary plans for 1964-65 and 1965-66. He mentioned that a "discarded print" of the Board's salary proposal was used as a routing sheet for a batch of school menus which were delivered to one of the schools a week prior to the March 5 meeting of the Board of Education.

When the schedule came to light the chairman of the staff salary committee called Dr. Hoover and requested a clarification of the situation. Sweeney contended that "the teachers had been promised no final action would be taken on the salary schedule for Kingston schools until after the state aid to education situation was settled, and until after another meeting between the teachers committee of the Board and the faculty group."

Denial by Hoover

Dr. Hoover today denied Sweeney's assertion that it was his (Dr. Hoover's) opinion that the Board was under no obligation to meet with the teachers before taking any final action on salaries. Dr. Hoover said it was Chairman Sweeney's feeling that the Board had made such a commitment.

"I told Don that I didn't think the Board had made such a commitment," Dr. Hoover said," and told him that if he felt the Board had made such a commitment, and if Don was agreeable I would try to set up a meeting with the Teachers Committee of the Board before the March 5 meeting."

Dr. Hoover stated that Chairman Sweeney agreed to contact other members of the Staff Salary Committee and inform them that a meeting could be arranged Wednesday with the Board committee to discuss the salary plan. Dr. Hoover said Sweeney did contact other members, and later Sweeny stated the committee had other commitments and could not attend a meeting on short notice.

Dr. Hoover emphasized that he worked with the teachers group, merely because Sweeney felt the Board of Education had made a commitment that it would not take final action on the salary plan until it was discussed with the committee representing teachers. Dr. Hoover said the teachers had called off such a meeting.

Claims Notice Too Short

Sweeney said that Dr. Hoover was quoted as saying he thought it would be nice if the Board and teachers got together for a meeting prior to the March 5 meeting. This conversation, according to Sweeney, took place about 9 a. m. on Tuesday, March 3.

In a report of Tuesday's teachers' meeting, it was noted that shortly before 2 p. m. on Tuesday, March 3, Dr. Hoover called Sweeney and informed him that Mrs. Murphy (Edith Case Murphy) chairman of the Board's teachers committee had agreed to meet with other members of the Board and the faculty group Wednesday night, March 4.

Sweeney reportedly contacted other members of the Staff Salary Committee and five committee members said they would be unable to attend a meeting on such short notice because of other commitments. Sweeney contends that at no time did the Staff Salary Committee agree to meet with the Board of Education.

Serving on the Staff Salary Committee with Sweeney are Randolph Siegel, Donald Rafferty, Clifford Shultis, Thomas Guerriero and Thomas Mannix.

Chairman Sweeney presided at Tuesday afternoon's meeting as moderator.

Tillson Driver Fined

Montgomery D. Williams, 34, of Merrihew Avenue, Tillson, charged with driving a vehicle with inadequate brakes after a two-car mishap Feb. 26 on the Boulevard at South Washington Avenue, pleaded guilty today before Special City Judge Bernard A. Feeney Jr. He was fined $10.

Brace for . . .

come the fourth worst flood in Ohio Valley history.

Red Cross shelters were established in Pennsylvania as the Allegheny, Susquehanna and Ohio rivers surged into streets and homes.

Hundreds of families in Missouri and Southern Illinois left their homes as rivers overflowed and sent water edging to doorsteps.

Residents prepared to evacuate as the Ohio River reached flood stages from Pittsburgh to Wheeling, W.Va.

Highest in 20 Years

Officials said 23 counties in Kentucky, 16 in Ohio, 15 in Pennsylvania and 6 in Indiana were affected by floods.

A 66½-foot crest was expected in Cincinnati Thursday, 10½ feet above flood stage and the highest in almost 20 years.

Some 5,000 families in Hamilton and Clermont counties in Ohio, and Campbell, Kenton and Boone counties in Kentucky were affected by flood waters. Some 900 persons—500 of them children — were taken to Red Cross shelters.

Many industries in Ohio and West Virginia were closed.

Central Halts Run

The New York Central Railroad halted its Chicago to Cincinnati passenger train near Lawrenceburg, Ind., and passengers were taken to Cincinnati by bus.

Tractors and trucks jammed roads leading into many river towns to evacuate isolated families.

Thousands of persons sought temporary shelter in Kentucky. The Ohio River is expected to reach its third highest crest this century in Louisville — 18 feet above flood stage.

1,500 Quit Homes

Shepherdsville, 20 miles south of Louisville on the Salt River, was isolated as seven feet of water covered the business district.

Some 1,500 persons were forced from their homes in Falmouth.

In Indiana, waters reached the top of some house roofs in the southern portion of the state as the Ohio threatened its worst flood in the state since 1945.

In Utica, a village of 300 persons, only the chimney of one house could be seen above the swirling waters.

Residents in Southern Illinois kept a wary eye on rivers as the water moved to the doorsteps of some homes. Roads were closed in four counties by water and families began moving out.

The Wabash River rose five feet overnight.

Three-hundred persons were driven from their homes in Poplar Bluff, Mo., after an 8-inch rain overflowed rivers. National Guardsmen worked through the night reinforcing levees with sandbags.

Major flood conditions prevailed in several central and western Pennsylvania cities and communities.

Some parts of Renovo, Pa., were under 4 feet of water. The Allegheny flooded from Warren to Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh also was plagued by the Ohio, which rose to 31.6 feet, 6.6 feet over flood stage and serious conditions prevailed into Wheeling, W. Va.

RIT Unveils Model

NEW YORK (AP)—The new 1,300-acre campus of Rochester Institute of Technology will have a seven-story administration building overlooking the $53 million development.

RIT, which plans to move to its new location in South Rochester in 1967, unveiled a model of the proposed campus Tuesday in advance of a $18.8-million building fund drive next fall.

The cost of the project has increased from the original estimate of $43 million, RIT officials said, because of plans to add a college of science and make various other revisions.

Local Death Record

Mrs. Kathleen Grace Iltis

Mrs. Kathleen Grace Iltis, 72, of Elting Court, Ellenville died Tuesday. She was born in Torquay, England, Oct. 19 1891, the daughter of John and Marie Ann Smith Pyle. Mrs. Rose M. Tiano

The funeral of Mrs. Rose M. Tiano, wife of Michael Tiano of Flatbush Road who died Saturday was held from the Frank H. Simpson Funeral Home, 411 Albany Avenue, Tuesday 9:15 a. m. A solemn high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of her soul at St. Colman's Church, East Kingston 10 a. m. Officiating at the Mass was the Rev. John O'Neill as celebrant. The Rev. John Russell was deacon and the Rev. James Cunningham, sub-deacon. Responses to the Mass were sung by the church choir assisted by Thomas Berardi, organist. Hundreds of friends, relatives and neighbors called at the funeral home to pay their respects and offer condolences to the bereaved family. There were many floral tributes and spiritual bouquets in the form of Mass cards. Monday evening the St. John-St. Liberata Society called in a group. Father O'Neill called Monday evening and led the assembled family and friends in the recitation of the Rosary. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery where Father O'Neill pronounced the final blessing. Bearers were Henry Rua Jr., James Rua, Vincent LaRocca, Peter Rua, Henry Rua and Carl Legregni.

Simon Dixon

Simon Dixon, 84, formerly of 20 Augusta Street, died in this city Tuesday evening. Mr. Dixon was born at Whitfield and had made his home in Kingston for many years. Prior to his retirement about 10 years ago he had been employed as a private chauffeur by Edward Coykendall. He was a member of Weiner Hose Company for many years. His wife, the former Carrie Donken, died in 1946. Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Baker of Sawkill, Mrs. Isabel Twohig, Mrs. William Brooks and Mrs. Walter Lewis, all of Kingston and Mrs. Myrtle Antonio of Texas; five sons, Robert S. Dixon of Kingston, Raymond E. Dixon of Poughkeepsie, Herbert A. Dixon of Sawkill, Edward C. Dixon of Port Ewen and John Dixon of St. Remy; a sister, Mrs. Jennie Barley of Whitfield. Greene, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will officiate. Burial will be in Montrepose Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight 7 to 9 and Thursday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Strangled in Game

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Thomas Pulfer, 11, died of strangulation Tuesday after a belt became tightened around his neck when it caught on a tie rack in his home in suburban Eggertsville.

He was playing with a younger brother at the time.

Police said the brother, Robert, 7, told them the two "were playing games and trying to scare each other." They did not elaborate.

K May Call Summit

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Premier Khrushchev is expected to call a summit meeting next month of his allies in the Communist bloc to discuss the ideological dispute between the Soviet Union and Red China, informants in Budapest report.

Deaths

Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear mother, my daughter, our sister, Florence Davis Johnson, who passed away five years ago March 11, 1959.

Today recalls the memory
Of a loved one gone to rest.
Time and years roll swiftly by
But memories last.
And those who think of her today
Are the ones who loved her best.
Every day in some small way
Memories of you come our way.
But remembrance of one we love
Often brings a silent tear.
God took her home; it was His will Within our hearts she liveth still.

Signed, Daughter,
RUTH MAE JOHNSON,
MOTHER, BROTHERS, SISTERS

Memoriam

In loving memory of my wife, Mrs. Abbie J. Rosen, who passed away six years ago today, March 11, 1958.

Time and years roll swiftly by,
But loving memories never die;
Every day in some small way
Memories of you come my way.

Husband,
CHARLES ROSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market spurted early this afternoon in very heavy trading.

It was the fourth consecutive advancing session.

As volume swelled, the New York Stock Exchange ticker tape trailed floor transactions most of the morning.

The tape was loaded with big blocks, topped by 149,700 shares of Scott Paper, off ½ at 37⅝.

Brokers believed at least part of the surge was due to the government's estimate of a 10 per cent increase in business spending on new plant and equipment this year. The report was issued late Tuesday.

Steels, motors, utilities and metals were strong. Aircrafts showed weakness.

porary generators to supply current for Cablevision had not been successful, a spokesman said.

A Central Hudson spokesman said repairs were difficult to make due to the ice-covered wires and switches. Frequent calls to cover the same area numerous times by a succession of faling trees and branches also slowed up the work and attention was directed to major breaks and in cases where the largest number of clients were affected.

The Stone Ridge and Hurley area was without power and in Kingston there were several breaks in lines, both primary and secondary, in the West Chestnut Street area. The Second Ward in Kingston was particularly hard hit when numerous trees and branches carried away lines. The Lake Katrine and Flatbush areas and Saugerties were also among the hardest hit, a Central Hudson spokesman said.

In the Village of Saugerties power service was halted by heavy tree limbs that crashed to the pavement with the power lines along Ulster Avenue. One limb fell on the service truck of George Markmiller's TV and Radio Service, another fell on the roof of Smith's Antique Shop, also on Ulster Avenue.

Library Damaged

Village police reported another limb fell on the roof of Saugerties Public Library on Washington Avenue. The extent of damage was not immediately available.

Power failures were also reported in Windemere development and other sections of the Barclay Heights area.

In Sunset Park in the Town of Ulster residents on Decker, Codwise and Pine Place were without power from 3:50 p. m. until 2:30 a. m. today. Many of the residents without heat took refuge in the Montgomery Ward store and other nearby markets until closing time.

Kingston's Board of Public Works worked full crews throughout the day and during the night clearing streets. Several street blocks were reported during the storm. McEntee Street, Manor Place, Wilbur Avenue and East Strand were blocked for short periods. Throughout the city the Board of Public Works erected caution signs to warn cars and pedestrians of dangerous conditions.

Crews Out Sanding

Crews were also out during the afternoon and night sanding and salting highways. Sewer crews were out at 1 a. m. today pumping cellars which had become flooded. This work was mostly in the Elizabeth Street, Navarre Street and Wilson Avenue areas.

Driver Unconscious

Kingston police said a woman injured when a tree fell on the sedan she drove at Washington Avenue and Elizabeth Street, continued ahead unconscious, and became involved in a collision at Marius Street. A police patrol car on a call to Elmendorf Street, hit by a falling limb, escaped with only a broken radio antenna.

Sarah Yakle, 28, of Box 89, Bloomington, involved in the Washington Avenue mishap, was reported in satisfactory condition today at Kingston Hospital. She was taken there by Fatum ambulance, and is under treatment for a concussion, scalp and spine injuries.

A police report at 1:40 p. m. Tuesday, said the falling tree crushed the top of the sedan and "knocked the driver unconscious." The car moved ahead and struck a sedan driven by Marjorie Kegler, 67, of 50 Linderman Avenue, at Marius Street.

Officer Ernest Bartroff and James Scott investigated.

Limb Hits Patrol Car

Officer Floyd Krom reported at 12:19 p. m, that the patrol car in which he rode on a call to Elmendorf Street, was struck when a limb fell. He was uninjured and continued driving.

Calls reporting storm damage began at police headquarters at about 9 a. m. Tuesday. They continued coming in through the morning, afternoon and night. Several were also received this morning, until more than 100 were listed. Fire headquarters received over 60 calls.

Hartman Dutcher of West Hurley notified local police at 2:30 p. m. that his car was damaged by a limb which fell near the court house on Wall Street.

Two Skidding Mishaps

Two city mishaps, police said, were due to skidding.

Anna Simmons, 31, of 152 Glen Street, reported an injured left knee after a two-car mishap this morning on Railroad Avenue. She was treated by a doctor. She rode in a car driven by Priscilla Simmons, of the same address. The other car was driven by Kenneth Demski, 39, of 378 Hasbrouck Avenue. The accident was reported at 7:35 a. m. Police said both cars skidded.

About an hour later Philip Mastromarious, of 29 Clover Street, Poughkeepsie, suffered an injured left knee in a three-car mishap on Prince, near Garden Street. He was treated by a doctor.

He drove one car involved, and police said, one driven by Francis Janeczek, 24, of 44 Jarrold Street, had skidded. The other was driven by Katherine M. Cannity, of Lawrenceville Street, Town of Ulster. Officers Ernest Bartroff and George Dougherty investigated.

Fire Chief James M. Brett noted today that because of completion last year of an auxiliary or emergency system in his department, it was able to maintain all communications during electric power failure in many parts of the city.

The chief advised local residents whose telephone communication is cut off in such storms, to sound box alarms. Each family, he said, should be aware of the location of alarm boxes in their neighborhood.

Philip H. Maines, fire alarm electrician, who is in charge of department communications, was commended by the chief for his foresight and work on the emergency system, which took some five years to complete.

Among the Saugerties concerns without power was the Vidi-Comm, Inc. TV Antenna Service, Partition Street.

While Kingston and the area was being pelted with sleet, snow fell in the upper areas and it was reported by the Ulster County Highway Department that the sleet did not extend beyond Glenford on Route 28 and just north of Saugerties snow also fell.

George Fichtner of Ulster County Highway Department reported emergency crews had been out all day Tuesday clearing limbs and trees for county and state highways. A rock slide at Stony Hollow closed the road for a time and Route 32 was closed for a time near Bloomington by limbs. Numerous other temporary blocks were reported and crews cleared the roads as rapidly as possible. Today all roads were reported open, some only one lane but those areas were being cleared later today. At 3:15 p. m. Tuesday sanding and salting trucks were dispatched and roads were reported in good condition today.

Worst Storm

G. Allan Johnson, commercial manager of the New York Telephone Company, described the storm as "the worst sleet and ice storm in the memory of local telephone officials."

All crews were out today restoring service.

Over 1,500 stations were affected by the storm, Johnson reported, and today there were still some 600 to 700 stations to be cleared. These were expected to be restored today with the exception of some "isolated" cases which would be attended to tomorrow.

The area generally in which the most difficulty was encountered was from Saugerties south along the river valley. Hudson and Catskill, not in the Kingston district, were also hard hit.

In addition to the local crews, additional repair crews from Albany, Poughkeepsie, Troy, Schenectady and Saratoga, were brought into the area today to assist the local men. All installation work was suspended during the day so that crews might devote their entire attention to restoring service to customers.

Forecast Warmer Weather

Although predictions of warmer weather were received, up until noon the sky was bleak and ice still clung to trees. During the morning hours many limbs continued to fall from the encrusted weight of ice and emergency crews were still struggling with the job of keeping roads and streets passable.

Tuesday many schools were closed due to icy conditions and several remained closed today, including Highland School and St. Augustine School, Rhinebeck, Red Hook, Pine Plains and many others. In some instances lack of power and heat was responsible for the continued closing of the schools.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Police were reported today to have arrested 49 suspected Communists in Thailand's strategic Communist infiltration has long been a problem.

Britons Blow Top

prince were the subject of much public speculation. The favorite was James, in tribute to Scottish Stuart ancestors of the queen. Robert, Rupert and David also were mentioned.

It was the second British royal birth this year. Princess Alexandra, the queen's first cousin, had a son on Feb. 29. Princess Margaret, the queen's sister, expects her second child next month. The Duchess of Kent, Alexandra's sister-in-law, expects her second child in May.

The queen's husband, Prince Philip, 42, telephoned the news of his new son to Queen Mother Elizabeth, Princess Margaret and other members of the royal family.

Third in Line

The new prince is third in line of succession to the throne, behind his brothers, Charles 15, and Andrew, 4. He rates ahead of his sister, Anne, 13.

The baby was delivered by a team of five physicians headed by Sir John Peel, 59, the gynecologist who attended the births of Charles, Andrew and Anne.

It was only the second time since 1857—when Queen Victoria gave birth to Princess Beatrice—that a child had been born to a reigning British sovereign. Andrew was the first.

Withdraw Charges

Two downtown men, who arrested each other last Feb. 29 on third degree assault charges, withdrew them today in city court. They were Louis Green, 43, of 223 North Street, and William Boone, 21, of 14 Ravine Street. The arrests followed a reported fight in a downtown tavern.

Real name of Nellie Melba, famous opera singer, was Helen Porter Mitchell.

Roll Call May Pull Back Bill On Congress Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House votes today on a bill that would grant $10,000-a-year pay raises to members of Congress.

Nearly everyone else on the federal payroll also would benefit from the bill but the congressional pay raise is the key to the rest of the package.

Having voted to cut taxes and pledged to economize in government many members are reluctant to put $10,000 more in public funds into their own pockets — and then face the voters.

The bill's chances are bright if it can be passed by a voice vote — avoiding the necessity for members to go on record for or against it. But a determined effort to force a roll call is expected to be made and if it succeeds the outcome will be in doubt.

There was a possibility the bill would be withdrawn if a roll call vote is ordered.

A final vote was not expected before late in the day—or maybe even Thursday.

The bill, backed by the administration and by many leaders in private industry, seeks to make government pay comparable with that in private industry up to the middle level, and to make executive-level salaries high enough to attract people of ability.

Getting $10,000-a-year increases along with members of the House and Senate would be the vice president, Supreme Court justices, Cabinet officials and those at the immediate sub-Cabinet level. Deputy and assistant secretaries would get $9,500-a-year increases and other top-ranking administrators would get an added $9,000-a-year.

For postal workers and career government employes raises would range from 1.7 per cent to 22.5 per cent, with the average mailman and government secretary getting about $450 a year more.

Search for Three and his nephews were struck by the trio, and all were trussed up. The men, one of whom was armed with a gun, forced Mrs. Suchich to open two safes that turned up between $7,500 and $10,000 in cash.

Suchich, a wealthy building contractor, managed to free himself about 20 minutes after the robbers made a getaway. He hurried to the nearby home of State Trooper Frank Gross and reported the holdup.

Climbed in Window

Roadblocks were set up, attendants on the Mid-Hudson Bridge were alerted with a description of the three white robbers, and state police from Fishkill and other sub-stations in the Troop K District took part in an extensive search for the robbers.

Poughkeepsie city and town police and the Dutchess County sheriff's office were alerted.

It was reported that the men entered the Suchich home by climbing through a bedroom window.

Keep That Mortgage As Inflation Hedge

Q) "My husband, a government employee, earns $10,000 a year. We have a balance of $5,000 on our G.I. 4½-per-cent mortgage. Should we pay off the mortgage by extra monthly payments, invest in stocks, or put money in a savings account? We have about $100 a month that we could use." — J. F.

A) I advise you to leave your mortgage unchanged.

The interest charge is low and places no burden on you. A moderate amount of indebtedness is not a bad thing in view of the constant possibility of a new round of inflation — which has been checked but never halted in this country. Should this develop, you can pay off your mortgage at a later date with cheaper dollars.

Before doing any investing, you should first build up a savings reserve adequate to meet all possible contingencies. When that is accomplished, I advise you to begin buying strong growth stocks, as are mentioned here freqquently. Buy in lots of $400 to $500 to save on commission charges.

Q) "I am 36 years of age, but because of illness I cannot work. I own $250 in series E bonds. Could I redeem these bonds and buy a stock that would bring me current income?" — V. P.

A) I offer you my deepest sympathy on your illness.

You can redeem your series E bonds at any time after two months from issue date. I should be failing in my duty, however, if I did not advise you very strongly not do so.

The most you could expect with safety from a stock under present conditions would be about 5 per cent. This would bring you about $1 a month, from the proceeds of your series E bonds. For this amount, you would be switching from the most secure and stable form of investment into the most fluctuating one.

If you must have a little current income, your money belongs in a saving account, where your capital will be always secure.

Two Views Differ

executive branches of New York State...and to everybody connected with racing in New York for the past eight years."

Governor Confident of Group

Gov. Rockefeller told a news conference a short time after the report was released that he had confidence the association was doing a satisfactory job.

But he said he had asked the state Racing Commission to plan to institute a program to oversee future construction plans, financing and contracts of the NYRA to avoid any more "questions or criticisms."

He said legislation would be needed to expand the authority of the racing commission so it could assume the surveillance role.

"I do not want to see the state take over this operation," Rockefeller said.

The auditor's report contained no conclusions. It said many of the Thaler charges "were relatively broad" and could not be covered thoroughly in the time available.

Other Audit Points

Among the points the audit made:

—A contract for the parking concession at the three tracks, held since 1956 by Olympic Parking Service Inc., was awarded without competitive bidding. A principal in the company, Mathew J. Murray, is a member of the Turf and Field Club, an organization of racing enthusiasts. All the NYRA trustees also are club members.

—The association bought for $20,175 a house in Saratoga Springs owned by the president of its administrative division and less than a year later sold the house for $10,000 on advice of "counsel and real estate advisors in Saratoga that this was a good offer."

The salaries of association President Edward T. Dickinson and Comptroller Frank M. Basil were raised from $50,000 to $65,000 in January 1962. Seven other officials of the association are paid more than $25,000 a year.

—The association took competitive bids on all its major construction contracts and awarded contracts to the low bidders.

Thaler demanded appointment of a joint legislative commission to study the NYRA and recommended a complete overhaul of the administration of thoroughbred racing in the state.

"The iron curtain of secrecy has only been lifted for a glimpse," Thaler said. "There are other conflicts of interest yet to be disclosed."

He added:

"The unconscionable salaries, pension payments, interest rates, contract prices, etc., are but a beginning, in the 'hanky panky' operations of the racetracks."

Fire Damages 2-Story Frame House in City

A two-story, frame house at 153 Clinton Avenue owned and occupied by Richard and Jean Matthews, was damaged by fire Tuesday.

A second-floor bedroom closet and its contents were destroyed. The blaze originated in the closet and spread that and smoke damage to other second-floor areas and the attic. Firemen opened a wall section to check fire travel.

Units from Central and Wiltwyck stations and the Wicks Company answered a call at 5:38 p. m. with Chief James M. Brett and Deputy Chief Glyn M. Southard in charge.

Man of the Unusual

Surprises Dot Lodge's Career

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Springing surprises and accomplishing the unexpected is nothing unusual for Henry Cabot Lodge.

It has dotted his career since he went to work for a Boston newspaper as a reporter in 1922. The job was an unusual one for a college student whose ancestry includes six U.S. senators, a secretary of state, a secretary of the Navy and a governor of Massachusetts.

Degree in Three Years

The unusual continued when he earned his degree from Harvard College in three years.

The unexpected burst onto the national political scene in 1936 when — as a tall, handsome young man of 34—Lodge won a U.S. Senate seat himself. The man he defeated was the late James Michael Curley, then at the height of a flamboyant career as the incumbent Democratic governor of Massachusetts.

Lodge did the unusual again in 1944, about a year after winning reelection to the Senate, by resigning to enter the Army. The 6-foot-3 Boston brahmin won six battle stars, a bronze star and the Croix de Guerre while serving in Europe with a tank outfit.

He had been an avowed isolationist before World War II, saying, "This is not our war," even though he was a leader in the preparedness movement.

Afterward he was quick to admit that, "I was 100 per cent wrong."

"The Lodge who came back from the war was not the Lodge who had gone overseas," he said and worked to win Senate approval of the Marshall Plan and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Public Backing of Ike

Lodge came out publicly in November 1951, in favor of drafting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination. He was practically alone among the political "big names" who did so—until Ike scored a smashing victory in the 1952 presidential primary in New Hampshire.

Lodge was the leader at the GOP national convention in Chicago that summer, where Eisenhower won the nomination over Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Lodge was the prime mover in the campaign which resulted in Eisenhower's November election over Adlai E. Stevenson.

But while Lodge was working for Ike he was away from his political fences in Massachusetts. A young congressman by the name of John F. Kennedy upset him in the Bay State Senate race and Lodge was out of a job.

Tough With Reds

He was back on the national scene before long, being named United Nations ambassador in 1953 by President Eisenhower. He became known for his diplomatic yet tough-talking rebuttals to the Soviet Union delegate.

The United Nations was the springboard from which he dived into the Republican vice presidential nomination in 1960. Again he—and Richard M. Nixon—was beaten by John F. Kennedy.

It was the late President Kennedy who asked him if he would accept the post of U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam. Lodge agreed immediately.

School Aid Still Up in Air

Assemblymen Balk At Rocky's Rider On Teachers Pay

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Settlement of the turbulent school-aid dispute in the Legislature was hung up today on an attempt by Gov. Rockefeller to increase teachers' take-home pay by 5 per cent.

Republican assemblymen gave their approval Tuesday to an agreement drafted by Rockefeller and GOP legislative leaders to boost education aid by $22 million during the next school year.

Would Mean 3 PC Hike

For school districts throughout the state, it would mean an increase of 3 per cent in state assistance for operating expenses.

The GOP assemblymen balked, however, at a condition Rockefeller attached to the agreement—a requirement that school districts pay a major part of their teachers' regular contributions to the retirement plan. This would increase their take-home pay by 5 per cent.

Republican senators planned to take up the package proposal today. Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino said he would await the senators' reaction before deciding what to do next.

Meanwhile, Carlino said, the school-aid controversy could not be considered settled—that is, unless Rockefeller backed down on his "rider" to the aid agreement.

Rockefeller was in New York City, awaiting late returns from New Hampshire's presidential primary before flying to the West Coast to resume his campaign in the California primary.

Other Developments

In other developments:

—Civil rights advocates generated plenty of noise and enthusiasm in their "march" on Albany Tuesday but came away with no firm commitments for passage of measures they sought.

—Rockefeller instructed the State Racing Commission to keep a close watch on future financial affairs of the New York Racing Association as an outgrowth of conflict-of-interest accusations against the NYRA by a Democratic senator. At the same time, Rockefeller expressed confidence in the NYRA's operation of its three thoroughbred race tracks — Saratoga, Aqueduct and Belmont.

—Republican assemblymen voted to restore the right of grand juries to issue reports that criticize public officials for misconduct that falls short of committing a crime, a move advocated by Rockefeller.

—The governor said the Legislature should act promptly to revise the code of ethics for state lawmakers, but he sidestepped any direct endorsement of the Laporte committee's strict program.

Forced to Yield

Action on Rockefeller's proposed $2.92-billion budget has been held up by the insistence of rank - and - file Republican lawmakers that the public schools needed more aid than that mandated by law.

Rockefeller said barely a week ago that he considered the aid question "a closed issue" but he was forced to yield to the rising clamor and counter the threat of a full-blown budget revolt.

At a news conference Tuesday, he explained his shift in attitude this way:

"As I've said all along, it is the responsibility of the executive to propose and of the Legislature to dispose."

He said he recognized that a "serious demand" for more aid had developed. "The problem," he said, "has been to try to meet this demand within available resources."

Republican assemblymen accepted the $22-million aid plan at a closed conference but spurned the companion proposal to boost teachers' take-home pay because, Carlino said, they feared the extra cost would eat up the additional aid.

The New York State Teachers Association issued a statement arguing that there need be no additional expense to the school districts. The association said such expense could be avoided if districts were allowed to discontinue paying a 4.29 percent "deficiency contribution" to the teachers' retirement fund. The fund is now on a self-sustaining basis and no longer needs such reinforcement, the association said.

The proposal nevertheless appeared to have faint chance of approval.

It takes one acre of healthy forest 20 years to grow the lumber for a five-room frame house.

Gielgud Only as Ghost

NEW YORK (AP) — John Gielgud's voice only will take part in the "Hamlet" being produced on Broadway this spring. Gielgud, who is directing the production that stars Richard Burton, Alfred Drake and Hume Cronyn, has recorded the ominous dialogue of the drama's Ghost. A shaft of light will indicate the specter's presence on stage while loudspeakers throughout the theater boom the words.

Is Like the Globe

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne State University's six-month salute to Shakespeare is being performed in a theater modeled on the Globe playhouse of 1603.

The experimental theater has been built in a structure formerly used as a Unitarian church.

During the festival, the Wayne players are performing "Julius Caesar," "As You Like It," "Romeo and Juliet" and "Antony and Cleopatra."

Three Are Killed As Freight Plane Crashes in Boston

BOSTON (AP) — A freight plane plunging out of a sleet storm crashed in flames on a Boston waterfront lumber terminal Tuesday, killing its crew of three.

A lumber yard work gang had passed the crash scene just before the impact, giving rise to a report that two yard workers had been killed. However, all yard employes were accounted for later.

Slick airways said the four-engine DC4 was out of New York and Bradley Field, Conn.

The plane, attempting an instrument landing, came out of a lowering sky in sleet and a half-gale into the Castle Island Waterfront Terminal across the harbor from Logan International Airport where the craft was to have landed.

Hundreds of sweaters, apparently part of the plane's cargo, were scattered over a wide area as the plane crashed, broke up and burst into flames.

Need Mate for Swan

BURLINGTON, Wis. (AP) — Residents of Burlington have begun a two-pronged swan drive.

They want to buy a mate for a beautiful and obviously lonely swan that swims in the Fox River, and they want to engage an expert to find out what kind of a mate to buy.

The expert is needed because no one has been able to get near the bird, which stretches to its full five feet and ruffles its feathers at the slightest provocation.

Ordinance Rejected On Sale and Rental

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Voters rejected Tuesday a controversial open housing ordinance that would have made racial and religious discrimination in the sale or rental of dwellings illegal.

The measure was defeated by a two-to-one margin during the city's general election. The vote was 112,448 against to 53,453.

Backers of the ordinance indicated the battle had just begun. One Negro pastor said: "I think we're in for a long, hot summer."

Lodge Is Happy About Primary, Will Not Resign

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—"It is a great honor and a great compliment," U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said today after learning he was the upset victor in New Hampshire's Republican primary election.

Lodge made the statement after returning from a field trip in South Viet Nam. He has been accompanying Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara here on a fact-finding trip.

The ambassador was told of his victory while at Hue, 400 miles north of here.

A U.S. Army officer handed him a note with the primary results. He looked rather grave, folded the note and put it in his pocket.

Asked in Saigon if he was happy, he said, "I'm always happy.

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A committee to promote the candidacy of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for vice president was incorporated in Wisconsin Tuesday.

Price Bill Revolt

LONDON (AP)—A bill to banish store price-fixing brought the Conservative government its biggest parliamentary revolt Tuesday night since the 1963 Profumo scandal.

Twenty Conservative legislators flouted party discipline and voted for an amendment to water down the bill on its second reading in the House of Commons.

But thanks to a Labor party decision to stay aloof from the fight, the amendment was defeated 287-20.

'Under Withholding' Gap

Could Mean Pinch for Some When '65 Tax Time Arrives

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A tip to taxpayers in the middle to upper-middle income brackets:

Your tax cut may not be quite as big as it looked in your latest paycheck. Uncle Sam is withholding less this year than he used to, in proportion to the tax actually owed.

If you assume that the whole increase in take-home pay is yours to spend, you could find yourself in a pinch when income tax time rolls around a year from now.

Could Cushion Blow

Millions of taxpayers who usually get refunds will find the refund shrunken or gone entirely. A good many will be jarred to discover—unless they have taken steps to cushion the blow—that the owe the government sums ranging from small amounts up to hundreds of dollars.

The "under-withholding" gap results from technical problems met in introducing lower rates with the year already one-sixth over.

For taxpayers earning wages or salaries up to the general neighborhood of $10,000 a year, the withholding comes fairly close to matching the tax actually owed.

But in higher brackets, where withholding always has fallen well short of covering the tax liability, the margin now widens perceptibly.

For a hypothetical example, take Harry X. Birdlong, a junior executive who is paid $15,000 a year. He had a wife and two children. Like most taxpayers in his bracket, he itemizes his deductions because his interest, tax and medical outlays exceed the $1,000 standard deduction. They add up to $2,500, about average for his income group.

Amount Could Soar

He has just finished figuring his 1963 tax. It came to $2,225. The withholding amounted to $2,220. Birdlong, has sent the Internal Revenue Service $5 with his 1963 tax return.

For 1964 his federal income tax will drop to around $1,975. His paycheck withholding will come to about $1,810.

Instead of owing IRS only $5, he will owe something like $165.

With the new tax tables for 1964 which IRS has made available, Birdlong, can estimate his 1964 taxes in advance and remit larger quarterly payments.

Birdlong might elect, instead, to ask his employer to reduce his exemptions. With a $15,000 income, he could make the withholdings cover his tax liability but not taking the withholding exemptions for the two children.

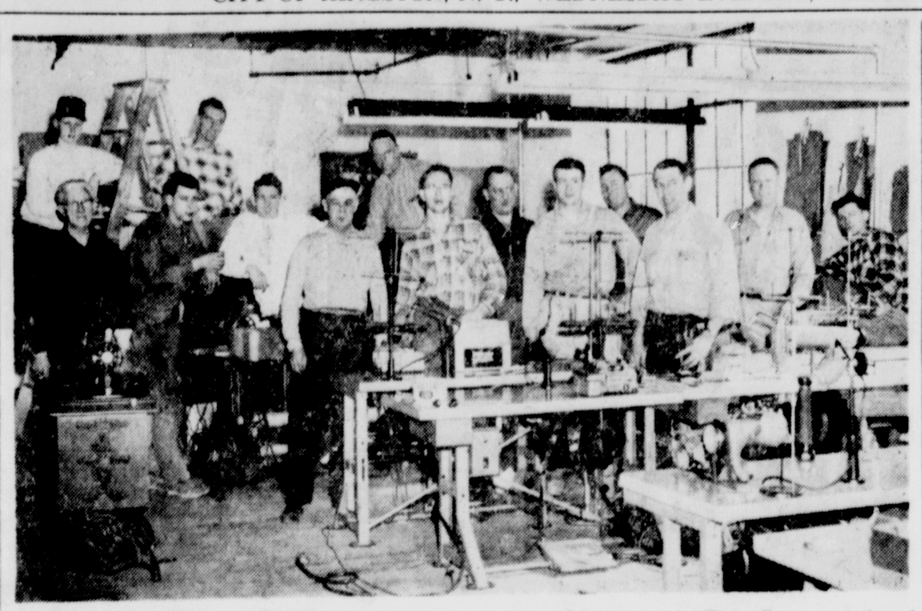
For him, this device would work out this way: tax, about $1,975; withholdings, about $2,000; result at year's end, a $25 refund from the government.

Less Acute in 1965

The IRS says most employers will make such an adjustment if the withholding is increased in multiples of $5.

However, tax men add a warning: the under-withholding will be less acute in 1965, when the tax reduction program is fully in effect.

So a taxpayer who has jacked up his withholdings to come out even in 1964 may find that the withholdings are somewhat too large in 1965.



LOCAL 645 AIDS GATEWAY—Volunteer members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 645, AFL-CIO, recently gave another assist to Gateway Industries Inc., occupational training center for the handicapped at Field Court. The electricians completed a major electrical installation and rewiring project at the center under the direction of Thomas Mitchell, business manager of the IBEW, and a director of Gateway. Milton Goldstein, executive director of Gateway in his commendation to the volunteers said, "The efforts contributed so generously represents the highest spirit of brotherhood and community conscientiousness and is representative of the good that can be accomplished." IBEW members on the job here are Thomas Mitchell, John Polonski Jr. and John Polonski Sr., George Steiner, Walter Swarthout, James Stenson, John Kurcher, Robert Metscher, Henry Hellman, Thomas O'Reilly Sr., Thomas O'Reilly Jr., Floyd Crantek, Neal Crantek Jr., and William Murphy. Jury Duty Topic For Ulster Kiwanis Court jury duty was the subject of a talk by John L. Smith, commissioner of Ulster County Jurors, at the regular meeting of the Ulster Kiwanis Club, Monday night at Ang-El's Restaurant.

Citing the advantages of the present-day system, Smith said that willfull disobedience by a juror subjects him to criminal action in court by contempt procedings. Trial duty, he said, may not be tranferred to another person, but a juror may defer to another time. To be excused from jury duty before a trial commences, the speaker said, is not a reflection upon a person's ability to act as such, but is based primarily on prejudice. In criminal cases, all 12 jurors must agree, whereas in civil cases only a majority vote is required.

Smith said that in view of the fact that the Ulster County Jury quota has increased from 3,000 to 6,000, it is extremely important that the public become more interested in serving on jury duty, which is their privilege as Americans.

Ten members from the Kingston Kiwanis attended the dinner meeting as interclub guests. Next week's meeting has been designated ladies' night in celebration of St. Patrick's Day. All club members and their wives are urged to attend.

Diet in Snowbound Car

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Toothpaste, chewing gum and melted snow made up James Currier's diet during a week in his snowbound auto high in the Colorado Rockies.

"Outside of being weak I don't feel bad," Currier said Tuesday.

Two power line inspectors discovered Currier huddled Monday in the back seat of his sedan. He was covered with blankets.

Currier, 37, is an actuarial analyst for a Sacramento, Calif. insurance firm.

Warm in Dryer

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—Police making a routine check of automatic washer establishments early Tuesday found a young man asleep in a dryer. He explained he needed a warm place to sleep after quarreling at home.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

From time to time I have been quoting from wonderful material loaned to me by Clayton R. Smith, which he compiled around 1925. Folks now who have bought houses and land in the Rondout Creek Valley may be interested in the following: "Along the creek above the Strand on the north side was the settlement originally called Twaalfskill from the brook which flows down to the Rondout through Jacob's Valley. Twaalfskill from Dutch 'twaalf' meaning 'bass'. A store and landing were constructed there in 1806 and was used quite extensively due to its proximity to Kingston and the fact that the road was better and the grade was not as steep as that leading to the Strand. This section is now known as Wilbur. Above this was Hamilton's Ferry which connected Kingston and Klyne Esopus or Little Esopus which was the section south of the Rondout."

Mr. Smith further writes. "There was no road from Twaalfskill along the Rondout to the West until 1835. Prior to this time to drive to Eddyville one had to go to Kingston then to Greenkill where the mountain was crossed then along the tow path. Eddyville was named in honor of George Eddy, who built a cotton factory and saw mill around 1800. Both sides of the creek were densely wooded to the very edge.

"Just above Eddyville, at the present day, is Greenkill Park. This receives its name from the stream which flows through it. It was on this stream that one of the first water power developments in Ulster County was erected by Tjerck Claossen DeWitt in 1677. This mill ground all the grain for miles around. The site of this old mill can be seen on the east side of the road from Rosendale to Kingston, and called Dicky DeWitt's Mill."

Mr. Smith further writes: "Above Greenkill Park is Creek Locks, this was formerly known as Wagondale from the Dutch Wagondale meaning Vale of the Van Wagonen's, this property belonged in the early days to the Van Wagonens. Just beyond Creek Locks is Rock Look, which was known as Bloomingdale, a section near here is still called Bloomington. Following up the creek one comes to Rosendale. This is also from the Dutch and means Vale of Roses. The name was given to it by Col. Jacob Rutsen, one of the largest landowners in Ulster County, at the beginning of the eighteenth century."

He further explains: "In 1680 Rutsen purchased a tract of land on both sides of the Rondout from Creek Locks to the Coxing Kill and leased it to Dyrik Keyser in consideration of his building a stone house on it. Rutsen moved from Kingston in 1700 and took over this house and occupied it until his death. This house is still in existence on the Cornell Property in Rosendale. (This was written in 1925.) Jacob Rutsen was one of the original trustees to whom the Charter of Kingston was granted in 1687. He also served several times in the Provincial Assembly. Col. Rutsen was a maternal ancestor of Dewitt Clinton. In 1700 Rutsen owned nearly all of the Rondout Valley." More from this interesting manuscript written in 1925 and now loaned to me by Clayton R. Smith.

Our section of Ulster County and Kingston is rich in history going back to the beginning of our country. Little by little, the powers that be, are destroying the landmarks, the lore and the history. Perhaps they think they are wiser than the old timers who founded this country. I wonder.

County Breeders Qualify for Top Holstein Award

Nine New York breeders, including two from Ulster County, have qualified for the Progressive Breeders' Award, the highest recognition available by a breeder of Registered Holstein cattle.

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has accorded this honor to only 570 Holstein breeding establishments, including 75 in New York.

To qualify for the Progressive Breeders' Award, a Holstein breeder must meet strict requirements in all phases of dairy cattle breeding and management, including production, type improvement, herd health and the development of home-bred animals.

Two qualifying in Ulster County are:

Ridgely Farms, Stone Ridge, qualified for the eighth time.

Franklin S. Kelder, Accord, qualified for the first time.

A certificate of this award has been sent to these breeders by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, national organization of the Holstein breed representing nearly 41,500 members.

Bronze plaques signifying the award will be presented to those qualifying for the first time and Bronze year plates will be presented to those breeders whose herds have qualified previously to be added to the bronze plaques awarded to them when their herd first achieved the honor.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The television networks moved into New Hampshire like an army on practice maneuvers for covering a presidential election.

Tuesday night was just like 1960. The magic computers were back in stage center and so were the boards with the changing vote figures.

Because of the computers, the suspense was over very early in the evening. By 7:30 p.m., EST, the electronic machines had digested early returns and the commentators were talking about the Lodge victory as if all the votes had been counted.

The early evening special programs on CBS and NBC, therefore, were much more concerned with analysis and speculation than with other aspects of the election.

NBC, with all its top newsmen on the job, used its staff for comment and predictions on the men, issues and coming events.

CBS pulled in some interesting outside experts. Political pollster Louis Harris did a brief analysis on the way the vote was chopping into Rockefeller and Goldwater strength. On a second show, he amplified that, to state flatly that the Lodge victory meant a rejection of the two avowed candidates by New Hampshire Republicans.

Meade Alcorn, former GOP national chairman, and Theodore H. White, the other specialist, also spoke of the effect of the Lodge victory on the other candidates and potential candidates, particularly on Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania.

David Brinkley of NBC, explaining the reason for the enormous fuss over the New Hampshire primary, suggested it was partly because it was the first one in the election year and also because "it's a dull season of the year between football and baseball and besides it's fun to see millionaires stomping through the snow being folks."

Recommended tonight:

"Young People's Concert," CBS, 7:30-8:30 p.m., EST—The New York Philharmonic Orchestra and Leonard Bernstein in a program of jazz.

Why We Say--

LITTLE DEAR: This word really means "little dear." It is believed that the word dear is derived from "dere" which meant difficult or hard to obtain. The present meaning then would have come about from the fact that difficult things to obtain are usually precious and valued highly.

Minasian Store Plans Gala Days For 36th Event

Thirty-six years ago a member of the Minasian family, Lauren "Sonny" Minasian, started a small fruit and vegetable business at 47 North Front Street. The business grew and later a small line of groceries was added.

This week, housed in a new, modern super-market Minasian's Super Market, is observing its 36th anniversary. Lauren Minasian, who originally established the business is now a resident of California, but the business is still operated by two members of the Minasian family, Edward and Peter Minasian.

The 36th anniversary of the establishment of the business will be observed Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week with three "gala" days on which there will be special anniversary offerings. Each hour during the three days a basket of groceries will be given away to some customer in the store. A total of 40 baskets will be given away in addition to other gifts. During the anniversary observance there will be free coffee and cup cakes served.

The original business was continued at 47 North Front Street until 1946 when the business was moved to its present quarters at 84-86 North Front Street in a new modern structure built on the site of the former L. S. Winne Hardware Company storage warehouse. Since then the super-market, one of the oldest operated by a local family, has been remodeled and improved. In 1961 the entire store was remodeled and a delicatessen and bakery department added during the past year.

Established for 36 years, Minasian's Super-market specializes in personal service, many of the clerks in the store having been associated with the business and known to customers for many years.

Cornell Prof One Of Four Winners Of Sloan Awards

NEW YORK (AP)—A Cornell University professor is among four scientists of the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center who received awards of $10,000 each from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

The winners, announced Tuesday, included Dr. Aaron Bendich of The Bronx, a professor of biochemistry in the Sloan-Kettering Division of the Cornell Graduate School of Medical Sciences, for "his contribution to biochemical research."

In addition to the $10,000, recipients receive travel and other expenses to undertake a one-year affiliation with a research institute or similar organization dedicated to cancer research. Each also receives his full salary and benefits.

K Hears About Cyprus

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev received acting Foreign Minister Andrias Arauzos of Cyprus Tuesday and discussed the Cyprus crisis with him.

This was announced by the government news agency Tass, which said the conference took place at Khrushchev's vacation villa on the Black Sea. It was the first public announcement that Khrushchev is vacationing.

CONSTANT VIGILANCE—Most U.S. schools have school-crossing guards, but in Saigon, Viet Nam, American schools need the protection of soldiers armed with rifles. The school and other important buildings in the war-torn country have been placed under military protection after a recent wave of bombings.

Takes 700 Years of History

Supreme Court Goes Far To Protect Press Freedom

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has gone further than it ever has in protecting press freedom to criticize the government. But it took 700 years of American-British history to reach this point.

In a unanimous decision Monday the nine justices said:

Citizens and newspapers don't have to fear damages for libel in criticizing public officials' official conduct, even though the criticism is untrue, unless actual malice can be proved. And that takes some proving.

Nevertheless that attached condition—liability for damages if actual malice is proved—stops short of giving the press a blank check. It stopped too short for three justices: Arthur J. Goldberg, Hugo Black and William O. Douglas.

They would have gone all the way and given newspapers an absolute privilege in criticizing public officials. This was the thinking behind the decision which was written for all nine by Justice William J. Brennan.

So long as a newspaper has to fear a damage suit, because something it says may be in error, it is discouraged from freely exercising its right under the Constitution to criticize the government.

Must Prove Malice

Therefore, truth no longer has to be proved, only malice does.

The press got to this point over a tortured road going back to the 13th century in Britain when freedom was the special privilege of kings and the excuse for suppressing any criticism was the need to preserve government.

Any critic of the king could be jailed, branded, tortured, or executed. Gradually, as the British people inched toward freedom, came censorship and near the end of the 16th century a licensing system was devised. This was a stiff restriction. No book could be published without a license. Even by the middle of the 17th century the number of presses and printers was limited. It was a crime even to criticize a magistrate.

There was an excuse for this, too: to prevent the public from getting the impression the king's servants were corrupt. After licensing was abandoned a restriction was used: a tax on printing.

Took Long Time

This was to gag the press and ruin small papers. Eventually, the truth of a criticism became a sufficient defense. The British didn't reach that point until the middle of the last century.

The United States reached it earlier but only after a lot of pain. The British colonial governors carried Britain's press restrictions with them here. The colonies went through the same routine: licensing, censorship.

The governor's grip was so tight a colony might have only one newspaper or none.

Even with the framers of the American Constitution, what we now call the Bill of Rights—the first 10 amendments guaranteeing, among other things, freedom of speech and press—was an afterthought.

Hard Lessons

It wasn't even discussed until the constitutional convention was almost over. Then, after the states approved the Constitution, the Bill of Rights was added. Even here the bitter lessons were learned the hard way.

In 1798 the new American government ignored the Bill of Rights when Congress approved the Alien and Sedition Acts. One of them made it a crime to publish "false, scandalous or malicious material" against the government.

Although those acts only lasted until 1801, 10 persons were convicted under them. From then on truth became a defense. But through the years the Supreme Court see-sawed on press freedom, always holding to restraints.

This week's decision was truly a landmark because now the American press has less restriction than ever in criticizing government officials. This applies, of course, only to their official acts, not their private ones.

CHOSEN — Edward W. Kuhn, 58, a Memphis, Tenn., trial lawyer, was nominated the president-elect of the American Bar Association. He is expected to take office in August, 1965.

Tass on Primaries

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet news agency Tass sent its subscribers a 450-word report on New Hampshire's "so-called primary elections" Tuesday.

Tass explained the presidential primaries do not settle who will be nominated by "the two principal bourgeois parties" but "give an idea about the influence exerted on the voters by different Democratic and Republican candidates."

Americans each use about 400 pounds of paper a year.

Blame Red Pressure

MOSCOW (AP) — Dancers of the Bolshoi Ballet complained Tuesday they are suffering far too many accidents while training and dancing.

They blamed the accidents on the pressure to produce more and better dancers. Some dancers are forced to dance when they are ill, the complaint said.

The complaint was signed by some of the top bolshoi stars and published by the official medical newspaper, Medical Workers.

SHOULD WIFE HAVE WAITED OUTSIDE

Q: Last week my husband stopped off at a business associate's house to discuss something. I went along in the car but waited outside. He said he wouldn't be very long. Apparently my husband told them I was outside because shortly afterwards the associate's wife came out and asked me to go into the house. I said, "No thank you, I'll just wait here." When my husband came out he was quite perturbed because I refused her invitation and thinks I was very rude. Will you please tell me if I were wrong not to go in?

A: Since the wife took the trouble to invite you in, it was not very friendly to refuse unless you had a reason for doing so, such as you were not dressed or your hair was in curlers, which you could have explained to her.

A Memorial Service

Q: We are going to have a memorial service in our church for my brother who died two weeks ago in a distant city. We would like all our relatives and friends to attend the service. How should we go about inviting them?

A: You telephone or write notes to relatives and friends telling them of the service and where and when it is to be held. You can also put a notice in the obituary column of your newspaper.

Not Yet Engaged

Q: I have been going with a boy for six months. We are not engaged although we are "serious" about each other. I have been introducing him as "my fiance." I was told that I should not introduce him as such until we are engaged. Is this true?

A: You should not introduce him as your fiance until you are actually engaged.

Field Trip Slated By Community College Art Classes; Saturday

A field trip of the art classes of Ulster County Community College has been scheduled for Saturday, March 14, 1964 according to Dr. Dale Lake, president of the College.

Members of the design, drawing and composition and art workshop classes will visit the Biennial Guggenheim International Award Exhibition, a discriminatory sampling of contemporary painting throughout the world, at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum.

The International Art Award was established 1956 by the Guggenheim Foundaion as part of its overall effort for the promotion and encouragement of art and education in art and the enlightenment of the public, especially in the field of art. This year's big winner is the renowned Swiss painter and sculptor Alberto Giacometti.

The art group also plans on this trip to visit the 139th annual exhibition at National Academy of Design and the exhibition on Art and Industry at the Museum of Contemporary Crafts. Miss Ruth Muroff, professor of art and co-ordinator of the trip, feels the visits to the museums and gallaries are an integral part of art and the art education.

French Comedy Film Will Be Sponsored By B'nai B'rith

Members and friends attending B'nai B'rith Women's second theatre party of the season will view "The Suitor," the picture called "hilarious," and "screamingly funny" by the critics.

The movie, whose proceeds will benefit B'nai B'rith philanthropies, can be seen this Sunday, March 15 at 8 p. m. at the Lyceum Theatre, Red Hook. Tickets can be obtained from the co-chairmen, Mrs. Ronald Wolfield and Mrs. Harold Beller, or can be purchased at the door. All tickets bought for this Sunday performance will aid the benefit.

The tongue-in-cheek plot, starring the triple-threat French actor Pierre Etaix, who also wrote and directed the film, involves a hermit-type bachelor who one day decides to abandon his isolation and find himself a girl, becoming a suitor for marriage. Unworldly, untutored and untried with women, he observes how other men get on successfully with the opposite sex, but misinterprets their behavior and gets into all kinds of scrapes. Ultimately, he heads towards the arms of his true beloved and will win her if he doesn't fall on his face before he gets there.

The supporting cast includes Laurence Ligneres, France Arnell, Claude Massot, Denise Perronne and Karin Vesely.

Mrs. Lillian Curtis Has 75th Birthday

A surprise birthday party was given for Mrs. Lillian Curtis at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Curtis of 17 Lawrenceville Street, this city, on Sunday, March 1. The occasion marked her 75th birthday.

Mrs. Curtis, who resides at 81 Fair Street, this city, has been a Kingston resident for many years. She had a nursing home on Smith Avenue.

Mrs. Curtis has two sons, Carlton of Kingston and Benjamin of West Shokan. She also has a daughter, Mrs. Louise Wickham of Middlefield, Conn., 14 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren.

A buffet supper was served and Mrs. Curtis received many gifts. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wickham of Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Curtis, Henry Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. William Curtis, Patricia Curtis, Alan Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompkins of West Shokan, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Curtis of Kingston.

Gifts were also received from Mrs. Rose McArdle of Connecticut, Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeConto of Connecticut and others.

Sisterhood Meeting Tonight; Hat Show Will Be Featured

Sisterhood Temple Emanuel will have a special hat show this evening at 8 in the social hall of the Temple on Albany Avenue.

Name 3 Teachers To Judge Essays For Loyalty Day

Three area teachers were designated this week as judges for the VFW Loyalty Day contest which reaches its deadline Friday.

The Rev. Frederick Imhoff, pastor of Saugerties Congregational Church and teacher in Catskill, Miss A. Frances Larned and Mrs. Paul Kruger have been named by the VFW essay chairman, Mrs. Mary Breithaupt, to select nine winners and a grand prize winner from the entries.

All winners will be announced on April 4 at the conclusion of the entertainment at German-Irish Nite, the fund raiser for the Loyalty Day program, in the high school auditorium, starting at 8 p. m.

Cash prizes of $10, $5 and $3 will be awarded in the three groups of grades 4 through 6; 7 and 8; and the high school division. The three first prize winners will also receive plaques for their classroom and a medal. From those top three, the judges will select one to be Miss or Mr. Loyalty, entitling her or him to be grand marshal of the parade on May 2 and a weekend at the New York World's Fair, accompanied by his or her parent or guardian.

Should the grand prize winner be present at the German-Irish Nite, he or she will be crowned at that time. Formal presentation of the prizes will be made the weeks prior to the parade in the various classrooms or in conjunction with any scheduled school assembly.

More than 2000 letters inviting student participation have been distributed in the Saugerties Central School system and St. Mary of the Snow, centering on the theme, "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country."

The first phase in the annual Loyalty Day program is aimed at stressing the importance of loyalty to the youth of the area, reminds the chairman, Edwin Mower. "With a spirited rededication each year," he stated, "the future leaders of the world are installing a patriotic zeal which will prove to be a yardstick for their entire lives."

May 2 climaxes the Loyalty Day program with church services at 8 a. m. in St. Mary of the Snow Church, and an appropriate patriotic observance at the Congregational Church at 10 a. m. The afternoon will feature the parade.

Funds to support the Loyalty Day venture will be derived from the journal and ticket sale to the German-Irish Nite on April 4, since the committee must raise the entire amount independently of the VFW Post and Auxiliary treasuries. Ticket holders that evening will also be entitled to become the recipients of a free weekend at the N. Y. World's Fair. Tickets may be obtained from any auxiliary member or through the chairman Mrs. Helen Gardner or her assistant, Mrs. Ruth Prendergast.

Women Voters League Issue Election Data

A voters service information bulletin prior to the Saugerties Village elections Tuesday from 12 noon to 9 p. at the village clerk's office, was issued today by the Saugerties Provisional League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Jerome Andersen, public relations chairman said the voters service information bulletin is prepared as a public service by the local organization.

Three Village Party candidates are running unopposed for reelection to trustees posts they now hold. They are:

Robert Moser, Arthur York, and Cornelius Cox. The salary for the post is $300 per year.

Duties outlined are as follows: Trustees are members of the Village Board and each holds a commissionership for some department. Members vote on appointments and salaries of village employes, appoint members to various other village boards, pass local laws, resolutions and village ordinances and are responsible for the financial affairs of the village.

Qualifications for voters are:

Must be citizen of U. S., 21 years of age or over, or naturalized citizen for at least 90 days; able to read and write, resident of village for 30 days; resident of county for four months; resident of state for one year. Registration is not necessary and a voter need not necessarily be a taxpayer.

Election inspectors will include Edwin Schoonmaker, Sarah Freligh, William Johnson, and machine tenders will be Catherine Van Gaasbeek and Evelyn Freligh.

Theta Rho Girls Continue Fund Drive for Rally

Tonda Theta Rho Girls Club No. 26, pushed its fund raising campaign this week to provide monies for delegates to attend the Theta Rho Girls state rally in October.

Club President Linda Paradise outlined her program at a recent meeting and the girls will soon begin to work on their projects.

Pamela Crowell of Kingston will be initiated into the club at the next meeting Monday, March 16. The club now has some new regalia which will be displayed at the meeting.

The refreshment committee will include Caryln and Mildred Fyllingen.

St. Patrick's Fete Of Lions Slated At The Flamingo

Saugerties Lions Club Monday night at the Flamingo Restaurant, formulated plans for a gala St. Patrick's Day celebration.

Vice president Joseph Boscoe presided at the meeting in the absence of the president and called upon the St. Patrick's Day program chairman William Farrell who advised the club that on Monday, March 16, the club would hold its annual St. Patrick's Day celebration. Lion Farrell reportel that entertainment has been scheduled to follow the dinner meeting.

Secretary Glen Genthner discussed with the members the possibility of the Lions Club chartering a bus to attend the World's Fair later in the year. At the suggestion of Boscoe the matter was taken under advisement.

Publicity Chairman, William D. Brinnier, was asked to contact Lions not present at the meeting to advise them of the forthcoming St. Patrick's Day program. All Lions are urged to attend next Monday evening's dinner meeting and to bring guests to enjoy the festivities. Those members intending to bring guests are requested to make reservations with Sparky Greco at the Flamingo in order that he can plan for the dinner.

Methodist Church Activities Listed

Saugerties Methodist Church pastor, the Rev. J. H. Rainear, will speak over WGHQ at 8 a. m. on the program sponsored by the Saugerties Area Council of Churches, Sunday.

At 8:45 and 11 a. m. Sunday worship services, the sermon will be "Herod, Who Bartered His Soul," continuing the series on personalities of the passion. At 8:45 the youth choir will sing directed by Robert Gilbert with Mildred Fellows as organist and at 11 the senior choir sings directed by Lewis Gaylord with Jane Tonnesen as organist. Gilbert will be soloist.

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered at the second service. Those desiring children to be baptized on this date rather than Palm Sunday should call the pastor. Campfire girls will be guests.

At 9:45 a. m. church school for all ages, nursery through adults; 1:30 p. m. the pastor will conduct a service at Dale's; 5:30 p. m. youth fellowship meeting with the pastor continuing his study on the gospels; 7:30 p. m. union Lenten service at Saugerties Reformed Church with the cantata, "Adoremus Te."

Monday, March 16, 7:30 p. m. commission meeting for those groups which meet regularly on the third Monday. Tuesday, March 17 at 6:30 p. m. Couples Club covered dish supper in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Quackenbush and the Rev. Mr and Mrs. Rainear. Wednesday, March 18 at 9:30 a. m. the ministers and wives of the Kingston District will meet with Bishop and Mrs. Lloyd C. Wicke at St. James Church, Kingston.

Local Rosarians Set Communion Breakfast May 3

Mrs. Terry Nau has been named chairman of the annual communion breakfast sponsored by St. Mary of the Snow Rosary Society slated for Sunday, May 3, following the early Mass.

The breakfast will follow in the school cafeteria served by members of the Holy Name Society. Tickets will be distributed at the April meeting.

Other plans discussed at last Thursday's meeting included the Living Rosary-Investiture ceremony coming in May. Mrs. Percy Wilsey explained the format of the candlelight procession in honor of Mary. She requests those interested in participating to contact her. Mrs. ... so stressed the fact that the entire family be present to witness the Rosary ... each person represents a bead.

It was voted to serve the Holy Name men's annual Communion breakfast in the school cafeteria on Sunday, June 14.

Mrs. Dorothy Corea asks all collectors in the various areas to turn in their books so a full financial statement will be prepared regading the monthly mission pledges.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Bobbie DiDominico, the group will investigate the possibilities of aiding the distressed areas in the south by having a spring clothing collection.

Extra "Calender Clips" were distributed to those members not already having them.

Forty-four persons traveled to Union City, N. J., on March 1 to view the Passion Play, according to the bus chairman, Mrs. Isabelle DeCelle. This is the second year that the Rosary Society has sponsored a bus trip during the Lenten season. The chairman expressed her thanks to Mrs. Tessie Mayone for her cooperation in this venture.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Ingrid Marro, Mrs. Carolyn Carini and Mrs. Loretta Carle.

Following the April meeting, a program describing freezing techniques and proper cooking of frozen foods will be arranged through the courtesy of Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp. consisting of a film and a talk by a representative of the utility.

Colored slides depicting scenes of Lourdes and of the authentic German passion play, "Ommeramagu," were shown by Mrs. Laura Buono, following the meeting.

St. Mary's CYO St. Patrick's Dance Set Monday

The CYO of St. Mary of the Snow Parish, Saugerties, has made known plans for a St. Patrick's dance to be held Monday from 7 to 10 p. m. in the school hall for grades 6, 7 and 8.

Refreshments will be served by the social committee under the direction of Mrs. Mary Coons.

Sunday, March 22, CYO members from grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 will receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass, after which a breakfast will be served in the school cafeteria by Edward M. Flanagan.

William Buck, chairman of the roller skating committee, announced that the skating program usually held on Friday evenings will not be held on Good Friday.

The next meeting of the executive committee will be held April 13, at 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria. Donald Longtoe is committee chairman and the Rev. Joseph Hamilton is moderator.

St. Mary's All-Stars Upset St. Ann's of Nyack, 52-39

Reversal Rated Biggest Ever By CYO Experts

St. Mary's All Stars, a combination of Jayvee and Varsity players, have achieved the mid-Hudson valley's CYO basketball upset of the year.

The locals last night trounced St. Anne's of Nyack, 52-39, on the Rockland county boards in what CYO observers said had to be the most spectacular CYO reversal in several years.

St. Anne's powerhouse had previously captured two major CYO tournaments— the Lourdes Invitational and Beacon CYO — and getting knocked out of their own Invitational on the home grounds in the quarter final round was a bitter blow to the Rockland cagers.

Tonight St. Mary's returns to Nyack for a semi-final contest against St. Catherine's of Bleauvelt at 8 p. m. in the St. Agnes gym.

Rios Scores 25

Gregg Rios paced the brilliant St. Mary's win with 27 points, hitting a dozen baskets and three free throws. Jim Murtaugh and Ted Wood scored eight points each; Barry Jackson hit six and Jud Williams had three. Tom Samulyu accounted for 25 of the Nyack points.

St. Mary's overcame a 12-8 first period deficit to move ahead 23-17 at the half. The locals' man to man defense did a blanket job on Nyack's scoring ace, Bob Ahrens, limiting him to three points. Ahrens is one of the outstanding basketball players in Rockland county and received MVP awards in both tournament finals, Lourdes and Beacon.

St. Mary's defense prevented St. Anne's from using an effective overload offensive attack. A series of outside shots accounted for St. Mary's 16-5 comeback in the second quarter and the locals were never seriously threatened after that..

First Meeting Slated Friday For Kingston City Baseball

President Fred Davi has issued the first call to arms for baseball in the Kingston area for the 1964 season.

The Kingston City Baseball League, a twilight league operating at Dietz Stadium, has called an organizational meeting Friday at 7:30 p. m. at the city court room in city hall.

All interested teams and players are invited to attend. Last year's champions were the S&E Inc. tossers managed by Charles (Chick) Boice.

Buffalo Owner Sees Much Trouble

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The owner of the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League sees continued financial difficulties for his club despite the league's fat, new television contract with the National Broadcasting Co.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. said Tuesday the Bills lost "in the neighborhood of $300,000 last season," while leading the AFL in attendance. The team lost "more than $1 million" during the league's four seasons, he said.

"No club in the league has made a profit since it was formed," Wilson said.

"It is our estimate that the increased television revenue will just barely cover the continued rising costs of the franchise and the elimination of the annual operating deficit," he said.

The AFL's five-year contract with NBC is effective in the 1965 season.

"By 1968 or 1969, the franchise might find itself at barely a break-even point," he said.

Wilson spoke at a session of Buffalo's common council, which is considering expansion of the Bills' home park, War Memorial Stadium.

"In our opinion, it is no longer feasible to operate in a stadium of only 35,000 seating capacity," he said.

Intramural Play Set at St. Mary's

The newly-organized Intramural basketball league sponsored by St. Mary's basketball committee got under way with St. Mary's Willys topping the Warriors, 34-27, and St. Mary's Hawks beating the Tigers, 23-20.

Bart Williams of the Willys led all scorers with 14 points. Don Loeffler(Hawks) had 12. Don Williams of the Willys and Joe Primo (Warriors) had 10 each.

The boxscores:

Willys (34)—Bob McDermott 4, Bill Haber, Pat Bradley, Mike Betkowski, Tod Bittner 2, Pat McDermott 4, Ed Michaels, Joe Sullivan, Vic Owen, Don Williams 10, Bart Williams 14.

Warriors (27) — John Tiano, Jay Maurer 4, Mike Dunn 4, Joe Conger, Joe Primo 10, George Williams, Jack Haber, Bob Bouchard 4, Mike Hagrave, Gerry Greer 5, John Carterm, Mike Paladino.

Rip Van Winkle Council Bids For Two Major Junior Events

The Rip Van Winkle Ski Council took steps at its weekend convention in Grossinger's to bring two major Junior ski championships to the Council's area in the next two years.

The Council submitted a bid to the United States Eastern Amateur Ski Association to stage the 1965 New York Junior Qualifying cross country and Alpine races in this area.

For 1966 the Council, which includes 12 clubs in the mid-Hudson-Catskill region, will apply tentatively for the Eastern championships in the Junior division of Nordic and Alpine competition.

Endorse Smith

Delegates unanimously endorsed Ralph Smith of Kingston for another term as a director of the USEASA. Smith, one of the best known ski figures in the Hudson valley area, is presently serving as secretary for the parent organization.

The newly formed Shawangunk Ski Club of New Paltz was admitted to Council membership, bringing the total to thirteen. Other area members are Rosendale, Highmount, Belleayre, Navasink.

The West Point Ski Club extended an invitation to the Rosendale club for a meet at West Point.

Hunter Cup Race Slated Saturday

The Fourth Annual Hunter Mountain Cup Race will be held on Saturday, March 14 (weather permitting). The race under the sponsorship of the Hunter Mountain Ski Patrol and Ski School will be a straight downhill, utilizing the longest combination of slopes and trails. Registration will be open until the morning of the race.

Hunter Mountain's two films, the 18-minute "Turn Right at Twenty", in color, with a jazz background and narration by Sheppard, and the 20-minute TV appearance of Kitty Falger with Johnny Carson, are both available to ski clubs and other groups for showing in the Metropolitan or Capital areas. Contact Orville Slutzky at Hunter, or Paul Pepe in New York City.

Spring skiing is now in effect at Hunter Mountain Ski Bowl. Thus far this year, there have been 87 days of skiinng, and weather permitting, the regular Wednesday and Thursday "special" days, as well as the night skiing will continue.

Plan to Improve Rosendale Stream

Plans to improve a local trout stream to improve trout fishing in it was again discussed at the March meeting of the Rosendale Sportsmen's Association, Inc. The meeting held in the clubhouse in Tillson was largely attended.

It is hoped that work on the stream improvement can be started when the weather will permit and the State Conservation Department has been contacted and a member of the Conservation office at Poughkeepsie will meet with members of the club to give advice and make suggestions what can be done.

The club plans to obtain rabbits to release on club grounds to help improve rabbit hunting.

Three films were shown, one covered the Yosemite National Park in California, one big game in Montana and the third was on deep sea fishing. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Belinsky Makes A Wild Debut

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bo Belinsky is as wild as a March hare.

At least he was Tuesday in his first start for the Los Angeles Angels on the spring exhibition baseball schedule.

The southpaw who became a celebrity with a no-hitter in 1962, then slumped and was sent down to Hawaii in the Pacific Coast League last season, gave up only two hits and fanned four in a two-inning stint against Cleveland at Tucson.

In between he issued three bases on balls, made a wild pitch and nearly beaned pitcher Dick Donovan of the Indians. And one of the two hits he yielded was a 450-foot homer by Wally Post with two on in the first innings. The hefty wallop started Cleveland on the way to a 9-7 victory.

Belinsky blanked the Indians in the second inning by striking out the side after two walks. Bo was slated to work three innings, but Manager Bill Rigney removed him after the second "because he threw too many pitches."

Leon Wagner, traded to Cleveland by the the Angels, was one of Belinsky's strikeout victims in his first appearance against his former teammates. In fact, he didn't hit the ball out of the infield in three at bats. In addition, he dropped a fly ball in foul territory and drew a salute from the Angel bench.

The San Francisco Giants beat Boston 5-1 at Phoenix for their fourth straight victory in the only other exhibition scheduled Tuesday.

Rookies Jesus Alou and Jim Hart starred for the Giants.

Alou tripled in the first and came home on Hart's sacrifice fly. In the seventh Alou beat out an infield single and Hart doubled him home to start a three-run uprising.

Bob Shaw yielded only one hit in the first three innings to register his second victory of the spring for the unbeaten Giants.

Four Teams to Participate In Jr. Cage Tournament

Teams from Catskill, Kingston and Onteora will join Saugerties in the Saugerties Junior Basketball tournament, scheduled to begin Friday, March 20, 7 p. m., at the Saugerties Municipal Auditorium.

Kingston will oppose Onteora in the first game and the host team will oppose Catskill. The winners will collide on Saturday, March 21, for the title with the losers playing in a consolation game.

Fred Davi is chairman of the tournament committee. Bud Turek will handle tourney officials. Fritz Beckert is in charge of scoring and timekeeping; Bill Casal will observe the six minute minimum playing time and Ray Maday and Ray Ohno, birth certificate and height measurement.

Special Stamp For Goshen's Anniversary

A cacheted cover with a special Post Office cancellation will be issued at Goshen on July 18, the opening day of the week-long series of events of celebrating the 250th anniversary of the Village of Goshen. The cover will be a two-color printing, the original design for which was created by artist Philip A. Pines, a director of The Hall of Fame of the Trotter.

There will be a limited issue of these covers with the special cancellation which will be used on July 18th. They will be available, and anyone wishing to order covers may write to Box 250, Goshen, N. Y. The committee in charge will pencil in the name and address of the purchaser. Orders will be filled according to priority of receipt.

For the next five months, a series of events will be held by various civic organizations culminating in the Celebration Week of July 18 to 25. Plans for that week include a Volunteer Fireman's Parade, two art shows, Religious Heritage Day featuring combined choirs of all religious faiths, a concert by the 90-piece West Point band, and nightly pageants in which 400 participants will depict the history and development of Goshen. The pageants will be followed by fireworks displays.

Several new museum exhibits will be shown at The Hall of Fame of the Trotter which is open to the public at no charge all year round.

Special invitations have been issued to President Lyndon B. Johnson, Gov. Nelson E. Rockefeller, members of the Senate and Assembly of New York State and other dignitaries. An acceptance has already been received from W. Averill Harriman, former Governor of New York state. One of the outstanding ceremonies of the Celebration Week will be the dedication of Harriman Square, now known as Park Square, in honor of Mr. Harriman's father, E. H. Harriman, who played an important role in the story of Goshen.

Bouton Is Still Yankee Holdout

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Bulldog Jim Bouton is still trying to put the bite on the New York Yankees' treasury.

The 25-year-old pitcher, first major Yankee holdout in a quarter of a century, flew into Miami Tuesday night en route to the Yankees' spring training camp at nearby Fort Lauderdale after making it clear that he had not agreed to the club's $18,500 contract offer and still considers it unsatisfactory.

But, he added, "I may be forced to sign under the conditions now prevailing." Those conditions are what General Manager Ralph Houk says is the final Yankee offer and a threat by Houk to lower the $18,500 figure $100 a day if Bouton is not in camp by midnight Wednesday.

"Since the deadline is Wednesday night," Bouton said before leaving his Ridgewood, N.J., home, "I want to be down there if I do decide to sign. And if I do, it will only be because of the $100-a-day cut, which I can't afford."

KBA Nominates Forst; To Adopt New By-Laws

Charles Forst, the current first vice president, has been nominated for president by the Kingston Bowling Association. He was also manager of the recent association championship tournament.

Forst was the unanimous choice of the nominating committee headed by Dick Waltman, the KBA's secretary-treasurer.

Other nominations were: Joseph Mannello, first vice president; William Einekel, second vice president; Al Sonnenberg, third vice president; Harold Stewart, fourth vice president; Raymond Bellows, fifth vice president.

Nominated for executive committeemen's posts were Bellows, Norman Bowen, Vincent Carpino, John Frederick, Tracy Jordan, George Kenneda, John Lowe, Lawrence McHugh, Emilio Primo and Joseph Primo.

Nominate Waltman

Waltman was re-nominated for a three-year term as secretary-treasurer with the term to expire July 31, 1967.

The outgoing president, Philip Battaglia, was nominated for life membership in the K.B.A.

The nominating committee also recommended the following lanes representatives: Robert Burgher, Boiceville; Henry Meigel, Chalet Lanes; Gerald Michaelis, College Lanes.

Waltman reported that ballots will be mailed to all leagues in April with instructions to name a delegate to attend the annual meeting on May 12. The delegates may be either instructed or uninstructed to vote for the KBA executive committee officers and committeemen.

The official ballot also has space designated for nominations by the individual leagues for any particular office.

Jones Delegate

The executive committee also voted last night to send Addison Jones as the delegate to the 1964 ABC convention in Oakland. Jones has been the local representative to ABC conventions for the past several years.

Battaglia appointed a committee to prepare a new constitution for the association. The new document would be in keeping with the new guide lines recommended by the American Bowling Congress in its current manual. The committee will strive to have the new constitution and by laws ready for presentation to the annual meeting in May.

Bill Mohr anounced that the tournament champions in the various events will receive their trophies and checks at a victory banquet March 17, at the White Eagle Hall. Other winners will receive their checks in the mails.

PIN BUSTER. Colleen Miller, who hit a career first 600 with a resounding 668 last week in the Bowlerama Women's Invitational, is all smiles as she poses for the cameraman. The triple, made on games of 236, 200 and 232, is believed to be the highest first time "600" score ever recorded by an area woman. It beats Jackie Glaser's career first 600 series by one pin. Miss Miller, employed at Benedictine Hospital, has a 142 average. (Freeman photo)

Redder-Goble, Maroon-Olivet Bridge Winners

Richard Redder and David Goble of Saugerties scored an excellent 66 per cent game to win first place on the East-West side of the Saugerties Bridge Club's first March tournament.

The Kingston combine of Miss Dorothy Maroon and Mrs. John Olivet led the North-South contingent with the same score.

The runnersup were:

East-West—Mrs. John Carnright-Mrs. Harold Baumgartner, 57 per cent; Mrs. Ralph Bogert-Mrs. C. Lundgren, 56 per cent; Charles Ollinger-Gerald Rosenberger, 55 per cent.

North-South — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olson, 58 per cent; Mrs. C. E. Edwards-Mrs. J. D. Ellis, 55 per cent; Mrs. and Mrs. Leland Van Tassel, 51 per cent.

The next club tournament is scheduled Monday, March 23, at 7:45 p. m. at the basement room of the Saugerties Savings Bank on Market Street, Saugerties. All bridge players are welcome.

Present Laws Are Antiquated, Landowner Tells Federation

Mrs. Gerald Carson, resident and landowner of Aneram, made a plea for legislation at a recent meeting of the Columbia County Federation of Sportsmen as she challenged the current legislation which restricts the sale of firearms.

Pointing out that present conservation and trespass laws are antiquated in view of the increased and dispersed population, Mrs. Carson urged support of legislation to prohibit Sunday hunting and the use of heavy rifles in Columbia County.

Because heavy rifles are prohibited in Dutchess, Putnam, Westchester counties and in Long Island and Connecticut, Mrs. Carson explained that Columbia County becomes the focus for hunters from over a wide area.

"During the deer-hunting season," she said, "hunters armed with heavy equipment and walkie-talkies, descend on our area like an armed invasion from Mars, bent on the extermination of everything that moves."

John Gould and William Goodman, Conservation Dept. officials, also guests at the meeting, agreed that there were new modern-day problems in trying to maintain the fine old American tradition of hunting. Gould said the department is trying to stress the importance of manners in the field to all hunters.

Hillary Masters, also a resident and landowner in Columbia County, spoke of another fine old American tradition—the right of a citizen to privacy in his own home.

William Nimme, radio and television actor, and also an American landowner, remarked on the American tradition to hunt bison and thought that, unless restraints are exercised beyond what we have, the deer will soon go the way the American buffalo have gone—to extinction.

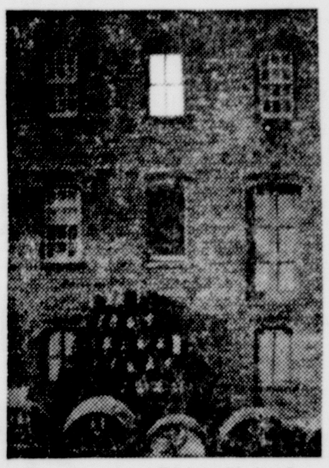
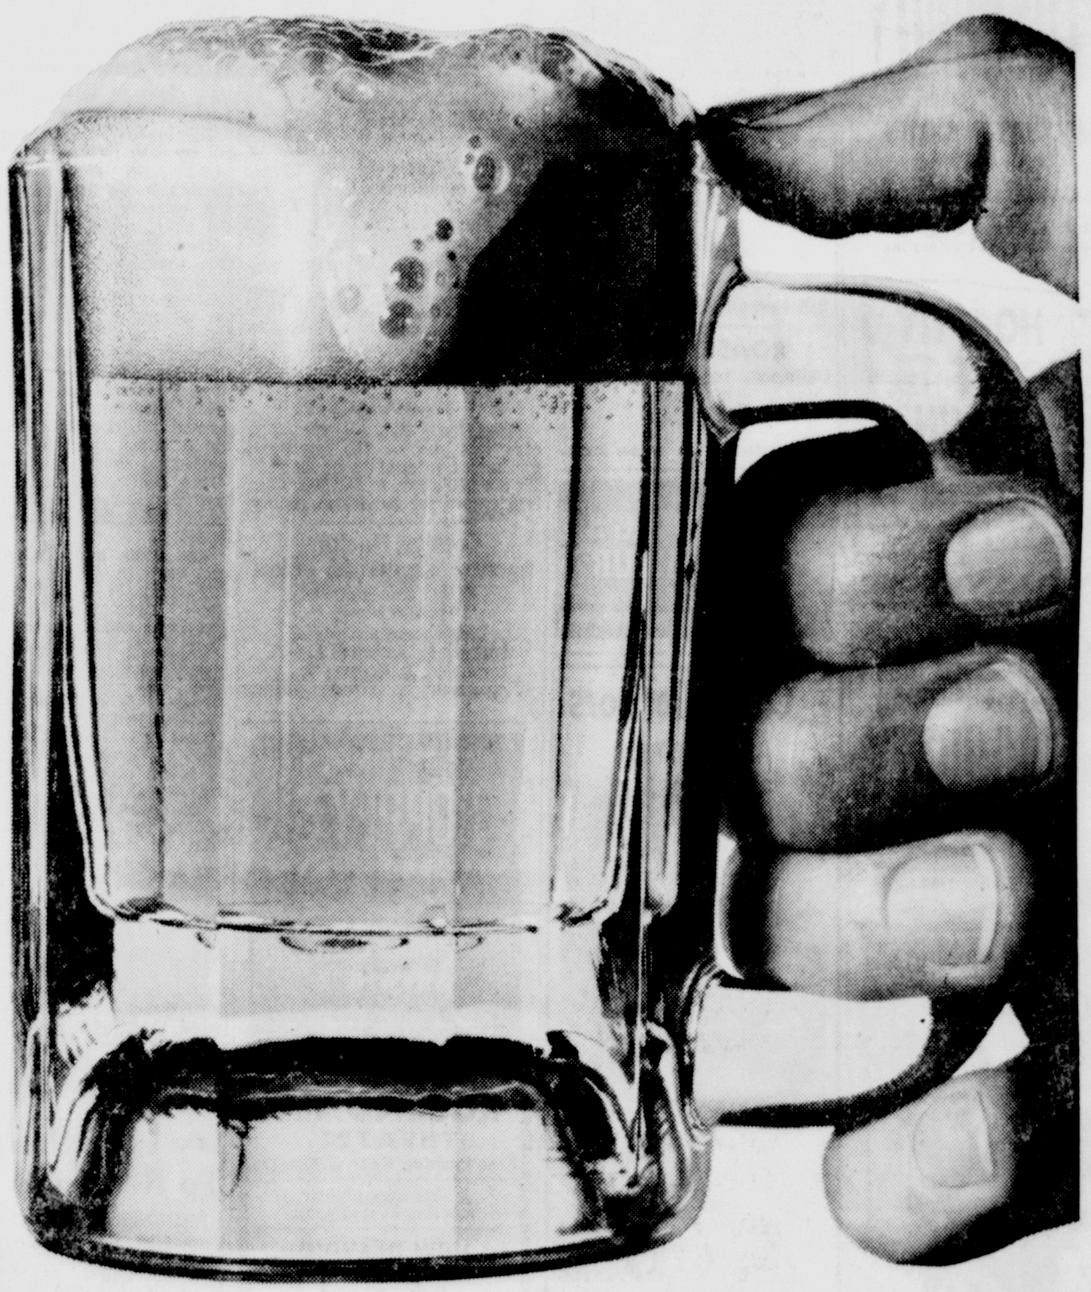
There were nights when Gottfried Piel was sure he should have left his brother in Germany.

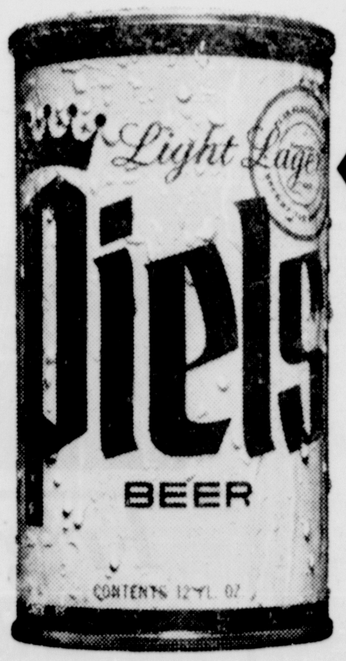


When Gottfried Piel decided to buy the tiny Landser Brewery in the section of Brooklyn known as East New York, he asked his brother Michael, who was still living in Germany, to come over and be Brewmaster.

The first year they produced 850 barrels. Michael hardly ever went home. He was fanatical about the beer he was making. He was so wrapped up in what he was doing that he was more than a little hard to get along with. Gottfried was worried.

But Michael knew what he was doing and the word soon spread of the terrific lager beer he was making. Gottfried's friends all told him how smart he was to bring his brother over to be Brewmaster.





This seal means a great beer every time.

For 80 years there have been no secrets in the Piels brewing process. Just honest men making good beer the way they believe it ought to be made.

"You've got to watch each batch like a hawk," says Piels Brewmaster. "Too soon, you get green beer. Too late, flat beer."

PIELS PEAK FLAVOR REGISTERED · 4014 · BREWMASTER APPROVED

Look for this seal and the Brewmaster's registry number on every bottle and can of Piels. Not an ounce goes out without the Brewmaster giving the word.

Fair St. Reformed Clinches Tie In Senior Protestant Cage Tilt

Fair St. Reformed clinched a tie for first place in Senior Protestant Church League American division with a 56-36 win over Redeemer Lutheran at the Myron J. Michael school gym.

In other games, Old Dutch walloped St. James Methodist, 79-21, and Hurley Reformed beat Port Ewen Reformed, 58-45.

Port Ewen Methodist will meet Old Dutch in a postponed game on Saturday, 6 o'clock, at the YMCA court. If Port Ewen wins, it will finish the first round in a tie with Fair St. Reformed. An Old Dutch win will give Fair St. Reformed the championship.

Garry Ballou and Bill Palen shared 34 points for Fair St. Reformed. The winners led by only a point, 21-20, at halftime but outscored their opponents, 35-16, in the third and fourth quarters.

Tom Brown led a high powered Old Dutch attack with 21 markers. Glen DeWitt had 20 and Steve Davis and Ken Heppner 14 each.

Hurley Reformed broke a 36-36 tie at the end of the third period by scoring 20 points in the final session, while limiting Port Ewen Reformed to nine. Tweedy, Hopper and Drake had 13 points each for the winners while Ferguson rimmed 24 for Port Ewen.

Loyola Cagers Over First Hurdle in NCAA Cage Defense

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Loyola Ramblers are over their first hurdle in a drive to win the national collegiate basketball championship for the second straight year.

Down by 13 points at 21-8 after 14 minutes of play the Ramblers roared from behind Tuesday night to defeat Murray State 101-91 in the NCAA tournament play at Evanston, Ill. The Ohio University Bobcats whipped Louisville 71-69 in overtime in the other Mideast Regional game at Northwestern's McGaw Hall.

Utah State came from behind in the last 85 seconds to defeat Arizona State 92-90 and Seattle, beaten twice by Oregon State during the regular season, surprised the Beavers 61-57 in the Far West Regionals at Eugene, Ore.

These four games completed the first round nationally in the NCAA and set up these second round pairings at four regional sites Friday:

Midwest at Wichita — Creighton vs. Wichita and Texas Western vs. Kansas State.

Far West at Corvallis, Ore.— UCLA vs. Seattle and Utah State vs. San Francisco.

Friday's winners meet at the same sites in Saturday's quarter - finals. Saturday's survivors then go to Kansas City for the semifinals and final March 20-21.

The NCAA small college tourney quarter-finals are on tap tonight at Evansville, Ind., where Hofstra meets Akron, Evansville plays Cal Poly of Pomona, Southeast Missouri plays State College of Iowa and Adelphi opposes North Carolina A&T. Pan-American of Texas, the defending champion, heads the second round play today in the NAIA at Kansas City.

Liston Arrested For Speeding and Carrying a Gun

DENVER (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston was arrested Tuesday night by a traffic officer who said Liston was driving 76 miles an hour in a 30 mile an hour zone.

Patrolman James Snider said after stopping Liston's Cadillac he found in a search of Liston that he was carrying a seven shot .22 caliber pistol with six cartridges and an empty shell.

Snider, alone when he stopped Liston's car, said he had to call another patrol car for help in handcuffing Liston "when he became belligerent." He was taken in handcuffs to police headquarters.

Snider said he charged Liston with reckless and careless driving, speeding, carrying a concealed weapon and driving without a valid Colorado operator's license. Liston was booked at the jail but gained his immediate release by posting $300 bond, Snider said.

The officer, 5-foot-10, 185-pounds, said he didn't know who Liston was "until I got down to headquarters and one of the other officers who knew him, said 'Hello Sonny.'"

Snider said another person in Liston's car was not taken into custody and drove his car away. Snider said he didn't know his identity.

The arrest took place on East 17th Avenue within a mile of Liston's residence in East Denver.

Snider said Liston offered no resistance getting into his patrol car but on the trip down to the police station "began to argue and that's when I called for another car. I said I had a customer that was beginning to get pretty rough."

With the help of the other officer, Snider said he put handcuffs on Liston and drove to the headquarters with no other difficulties.

'Loose' Pistons Beat Cincinnati

Nobody's as loose as a loser when the string begins to run out on a pennant race. The current National Basketball Association windup is no exception.

The lowly Detroit Pistons, feeling no pain at this stage of their worst NBA season, ambushed Cincinnati 114-103 Tuesday night and wrecked the Royals' Eastern Division title hopes.

The Pistons-turned gremlins thus assured Boston of at least a share of its eighth straight Eastern crown. One more Boston victory or Cincinnati defeat will put the Celtics over the top.

Two other also-rans, Baltimore and New York, had similar sabotage plans for the Western Division leaders. But San Francso and St. Louis, running 1-2 and a game apart in the West, refused to follow the script.

The Warriors stepped away from the Bullets 129-111 and the Hawks shrugged off the Knicks 124-105.

Ray Scott and Jackie Moreland shot the Pistons ahead to stay early in the third quarter after Cincinnati's 60 per cent first half gunning gave the Royals a 59-56 intermission spread. Bob Ferry's three-point play finished the Royals after they closed to within four points in the final period.

Scott had 27 points for Detroit. Cincy's Oscar Robertson sank all seven of his first half shots and wound up with 33.

San Francisco, with Al Attles leading the way, struck for 41 third quarter points and broke up a close game. Baltimore trailed 51-50 when the Warriors exploded. Wilt Chamberlain scored 32 points for San Francisco one more than the Bullets' Walt Bellamy.

Cliff Hagan got 12 of his 34 points as St. Louis ran a 26-6 third quarter streak into a 93-73 bulge that kept New York out of upset range. Ex-Knick Richie Guerin added 23 points for the Hawks. Al Butler topped the Knicks with 18.

Ivy Loop Stars To Return in '65

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Four first-team members of the All Ivy League basketball squad including Princeton's wondrous Bill Bradley, will get a chance to repeat next season.

Rick Kaminsky of Yale, who, with Bradley, was named to the select team Tuesday for the second straight season, is the only senior on the first five. Bradley and Harvard's Merle McClung are juniors; Penn backcourt stars Stan Pawlak and Jeff Neuman are sophomores.

Bradley, all-time Ivy high scorer, and Kaminsky, the Yale captain, were unanimous choices in the poll of conference coaches. McClung, Pawlak and Neuman were next in line.

Second team selectees were Neil Farber, Columbia; Dave Tarr, Brown; Dennis Lynch and Dave Schumacher, Yale, and Cornell's Steve Cram.

Leica Childs Scores In Roosevelt Race

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — Leica Childs circled the field on the final turn and won the $3,400 Class B pace at Roosevelt Raceway Tuesday night by 1¼ lengths over Lou John. The time for the mile was 2:07 1-5.

Buddy Gilmour drove the five year old gelding to his second straight victory at the meeting. Leica Childs, owned by the New Childs Stable of Brooklyn, returned $10.90. Spangler Goose finished third.

Williams Discusses Hitting At Red Sox Training Camp

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — The guy with No. 9 on his back, and a few extra pounds up front, reluctantly stopped hitting fungos to the Boston outfield and came over to pose for pictures.

Within a minute he was talking about hitting and four or five players were gathered around, as attentive as unpublished poets at the feet of the Bard.

"Now the first rule of hitting," said Ted Williams, "is to get a good pitch to hit. If the pitcher fools you with a ball that's over, you take until he's got two strikes on you.

"Then you concede that the pitcher is in the driver's seat, and you bring your hands up on that bat."

Among the listeners was Carl Yastrzemski, the American League batting champion. Now you'd figure he needs a lecture on hitting like Frank Howard needs elevator shoes.

'Yaz' Listens

But Yastrzemski kept listening. When he was a 2-year-old, the lecturer hit .406. In 1957, the same guy hit .388. Those are the two highest major league batting averages in the last third of a century.

"I'll probably be here a couple of weeks," Williams told a reporter after the picture session. "I'll talk about hitting to anybody who wants to listen.

"Most of the young players like to talk about it because it's the hardest thing to do consistently well in baseball. How often do you hear of an outfielder going into a long fielding slump?

"Now, to do any good here, I've got to be able to talk to a hitter without giving him the idea I'm trying to change his style. I think once a player has developed a style he just about got to sink or swim with it.

Williams, an executive assistant on the Boston staff, joined the club here after a trip to the South Pacific. He was the star in an outdoors promotion sponsored by the New Zealand government tourist bureau.

"First I caught a 600-pound thresher shark," he said. "Then I caught some trout and killed three deer—all in the space of 10½ hours. They had planes to take me from place to place."

Smedes, Rienzo's Lead Billiards

Smedes Plumbing and Rienzo's Market scored 6-0 victories in the Junior Billiard Classic last night at Buster Ferraro's Golden Cue.

Joe Torrisi of Smedes defeated Pete Bonavita, 100-98, while his teammate, Dan Gaffney dropped a 100-86 decision to Dom Berardi. Rick Hart of Rienzo's stopped Don Wolfe, 100-62.

In other matches it was Gary Kelder over Charles Staccio, 100-80; Lance Sussin over Ed Burns, 100-65; Nick Morris over Mike Amato, 100-76. Postponed matches included Larry Oster-Tom Cioni and Pete Perry-Vin Crantz.

Lance Sussin had high run of 24.

Young Boatmens Course to Start Monday March 23

The new young boatman's safety course will be taught at Kingston Power Boat Association clubhouse, Abeel Street starting Monday, March 23, at 7:30 p. m.

The course sponsored by the State Conservation Department's Division of Motor Boats, will be taught locally by Cleon Jump and Joseph Huber.

Those wishing to enroll may call Jump at Jump's Market Port Ewen. Classes will be limited to 25 students.

The course is designed for all youngsters, 10-14, who are interested in boating. New York State's revised Navigation Law now requires youngsters between these ages to acquire a safety certificate before they may lawfully operate a mechanically propelled boat alone on New York State waters.

Youngsters may qualify for their safety certificate by taking the Young Boatman's Safety Course and passing the examination given at the end of the course.

The course consists of eight basic units and is designed to be taught in half-hour sessions. All course material will be furnished free to both the youngsters taking the course and the instructors.

Plan books, work books and charts, all graphically illustrating basic safety requirements and precautions, will be used in teaching the course. The charts will be based on a boating safety handbook entitled "Make Sure—Make Shore."

Results Listed in Uptown Billiards

Bob East defeated Dave Manello, 50 to 27 in the Uptown Billiard League.

In other matches, Hank Houghtaling defeated Anthony Secreto, 50-34; Joe Sharkin beat Joe Bauer, 50-19, and Alan Seelbach won over David Burns, 50-27.

Sharkin and Seelbach tied for high run honors with 12.

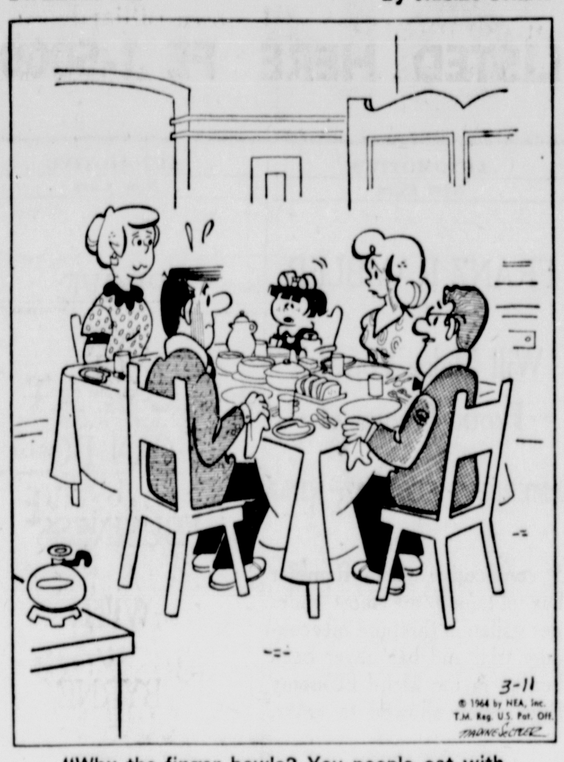
SWEETIE PIE By Nadine Seltzer



"Why the finger bowls? You people eat with your HANDS?"

Winners, Losers In N.H. Primary

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Winners and losers in New Hampshire's presidential primary:

Republican Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Viet Nam, was the big winner, leading the GOP field as an undeclared, write-in candidate.

Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who spent weeks stumping the state, trailed Lodge.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, another write-in contender, was fourth.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and former Minnesota Gov. Harold Stassen ran far behind.

A slate of 14 delegates favoring Lodge apparently won the right to represent New Hampshire at the Republican National Convention next July 13. They led Goldwater, Rockefeller, Stassen and unpledged delegates in 10 statewide races and two contests in each New Hampshire congressional district.

New Hampshire Democrats wrote in the names of President Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as their choices for the presidential and vice presidential nominations. Gov. John W. King called the Kennedy write - in "an expression and recommendation" to the President.

By a margin of more than 3-1 New Hampshire voters expressed approval of the state sweepstakes that will be run off Sept. 12. That decision came in a local option vote on sale of sweepstakes tickets.

Tass Hails Barry's Loss

MOSCOW (AP) — Tass today reported the defeat of Sen. Barry Goldwater in the New Hampsire primaries, calling him the "idol of the wild men."

The Soviet news agency also noted the defeat of Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, saying, "This Goldwater in a skirt, as she is called in the United States, collected an insignificant number of votes."

Tass correspondent Leonid Velichansky, in a dispatch from Claremont, N.H., said:

"These results mean, first of all, public condemnation of the adventurist policy advocated by Goldwater during his campaign in New Hampshire state."

Valichansky said Henry Cabot Lodge, the write-in winner of the primary, also favored a tough foreign policy "but not being an official candidate, he did not publicize his home and foreign policy program."

Capital News In Brief

WASHINGTON (AP)— In the news from Washington:

VIET NAM POLICY: U.S. officials said today the South Viet Nam government plans major changes in its strategic hamlet program to help speed the war against Communist guerrillas.

They said the new program would include:

—Reducing to a minimum the number of forced relocations of peasants into strategic hamlets.

—Payment of compensation to peasants required to leave their homes to enter the fortified hamlets.

—Providing not only security but economic and social benefits quickly and effectively to areas that have been cleared of Viet Cong guerrillas.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK: Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges says business investment is expected to climb to a record $43.2 billion this year.

His prediction at a news conference Tuesday was backed up by figures released by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The SEC said a survey it carried out with the Commerce Department indicated business spending on new plants and equipment would increase $4 billion—or more than 10 per cent—above the $39.22 billion in 1963.

Business investment is considered one of the most important indicators of the economy's health because investment in new plants and equipments creates new jobs.

MARINE BLUES: If the Marines adopted Rep. Daniel Flood's suggestion that they dress the part of a gung-ho outfit it would cost them a pretty penny to garb all the Leathernecks in glamorous blues.

The Pennsylvania Democrat, confronted by Marine officers in their regulation green at a House committee hearing, told them: "You're a gung-ho outfit—everybody thinks you are—and I don't know why you don't dress the part, as we used to say in show business."

He urged they wear the dress blues "Every place they appear in public."

The blue uniforms are not now issued except for special duty. According to Marine figures it would cost $42.19 to provide the blue blouse, trousers and hat for each of the 174,000 enlisted Marines. The 16,000 officers would have to spend $30 or so for uniforms out of their own pockets.

Officials Avoid

low-cost housing, cleanup of city slums, and extension of unemployment insurance and anti-discrimination laws.

"I don't think all these problems can be solved as rapidly as these gentlemen would like," Gov. Rockefeller told a news conference after meeting for an hour and a half with nine of the leaders.

Promise Review

Rockefeller, Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino and Senate Leader Walter J. Mahoney—all Republicans - promised a "full-scale review of the marchers' demands at a meeting next week.

But David Livingston, president of New York City's District 65 of the clerks union, said what Rockefeller had given them was "a definite no, gracefully and skillfully delivered."

Hit Democrats Too

The leaders were equally hard on the Legislature's minority Democrats and Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City.

One spoke of police brutality in New York City, Syracuse, Rochester "and throughout the state" and called for immediate repeal of two new laws expanding police search powers. Both laws were endorsed by both Rockefeller and Wagner, and passed on a bi-partisan vote in the legislature.

Rats and Housing

"Rats are still eating our children," said Jesse Gray, leader of sporadic rent strikes in New York City in which tenants refuse to pay landlords until their apartments are cleaned up.

"If all Negroes, Puerto Ricans and white people refused to pay," said Gray, "Rockefeller would be in Harlem tomorrow and he would act.

"I've heard round talk and square talk and all kinds of talk, but today we heard Rockefeller talk."

Rockefeller said the leaders praised his civil rights record, but understandably asked: "What are you going to do for me lately?"

"IS THAT A LUCKY GREEN BUNNY?", Kingston Uptown Businessmen's Association executive director Bill Klein asks Steve Nekos of the Wall Street pharmacy. Nekos has made 56 chocolate rabbits for the uptown businessmen's Lucky Green Bunny Easter contest. All of the chocolate rabbits will be given as prizes to contest winners, with about 20 per cent of the rabbits worth a Lucky Green Bunny bonus of $5, $10, $25, or $50 from the Association. Putting the finishing touches on the bunny decorations, before the participating merchants display them in their stores starting March 16th, is Miss Helen McDermott. Stores in the association have free blanks to be filled out for the Bunny contest.. (Freeman photo)

Po'keepsie Man Killed in Orange Truck-Car Crash

A 52-year-old Poughkeepsie man was killed and another man was injured at 1:30 a. m. today in a tractor-trailer-car crash which occurred on Route 17K about three-tenths of a mile west of Barren Road, Town of Montgomery.

New Windsor State Police told The Freeman that a tractor-trailer operated by Jerald F. Edic, 45, of 69 Robinson Avenue, Newburgh, and owned by Texaco Co., of that city, was traveling empty on Route 17K when the driver saw a car that had skidded and stopped across the highway.

The car was operated by Leo S. Serra, 40, of 87 North Bridge Street, Poughkeepsie, who was accompanied by Joseph W. Finello, 52, of 215 Mill Street, that city. Troopers said Finello was standing alongside the car when the crash occurred and he was hit and fatally injured.

Serra was taken to St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, and treated for lacerations of the face and head. He later was cited for driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated. The summons is returnable on Tuesday, March 17 before Justice of the Peace George Burnett, Town of Montgomery.

Orange County Coroner Harvey Agnew investigated with state troopers. A verdict was withheld pending an autopsy today.

Truman Gets Look At Controversial Statue in Athens

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson arrived in Athens today to represent the United States at the funeral Thursday of King Paul.

Driving into town Truman got his first look at the controversial statue of himself erected in tribute to the aid he sent in the late 1940s to help save Greece from communism. But the former president didn't see a "Truman out" sign scrawled on a wall at Athens University in another part of the city.

Workmen were still polishing marble inscriptions at the base of the 12-foot bronze statue when the motorcade carrying Truman and the American party passed.

White paint was daubed on the statue last week during anti-American demonstrations over the crisis on Cyprus, but the statue had been spruced up by the time Truman saw it.

It is Truman's first visit to Greece.

There was considerable criticism in Greek cultural circles last May when the American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association — AHEPA—donated the statue.

Some claimed that the sculpture, the work of American Felix de Weldon, lacked the artistic finesse proper to the home of Phidias.

Truman himself commented that statues should be erected only to the dead.

The statue shows a stern-jawed Truman clutching the Truman Doctrine in one hand with his other fist clenched. Its civic virtue style goes well with a lot of the turn-of-the-century stone and bronze work around Athens.

Lottery Upheld By 3-1 in N.H.

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — The New Hampshire Sweepstakes raced to a lopsided victory in a local option referendum held Tuesday in conjunction with the presidential preference primary.

The state - sponsored lottery apparently failed to pile up the 4-1 edge its supporters had hoped for, but the margin of approval was impressive.

With most of the state's 302 precincts reported, the sweepstakes won approval by better than a 3-1 vote.

Tickets for the first race next Sept. 12 will be sold only at the state's three race tracks and in 49 liquor stores in 42 communities.

Sales are expected to begin within the next six days in most stores and may start on Thursday night at Rockingham Park in Salem, lottery officials said.

The state hopes to realize more than $4 million annually from the venture and will distribute the money to schools.

The Iroquois Indians called their communal dwelling the "long house."

Testimony Given By Mrs. Epstein For Liquor Jury

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Martin C. Epstein, wife of the ousted chairman of the State Liquor Authority (SLA), testified for two hours Tuesday before the Manhattan grand jury investigating the SLA.

Mrs. Epstein apparently purged herself of the contempt citation on which she had been sentenced to 30 days in jail after refusing to answer questions before the grand jury.

Alfred J. Scotti, chief assistant district attorney, asked Tuesday that Mrs. Epstein return for more questioning before the grand jury next Monday. Her counsel agreed that she would appear.

Epstein, who is ailing in Florida, has been indicted on charges of bribery and state income tax evasion in connection with the SLA investigation.

'Flower Kissers'

Photography by Earl Fichte On Display at the Artcraft

An exhibition of photographs by Charles Earl Fichte of Woodstock will be on display at the Artcraft Gallery, 694 Broadway, Kingston, through Friday, March 20.

The gallery is open to the public, daily except Sunday, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. There is no admission charge.

Fichte, a professional writer and photographer, is a graduate of Springfield (Mo.) High School and has a bachelor's degree in English from the University of California at Berkeley. He did some graduate work in anthropology at the New School.

He expresses his philosophy of photography as follows: "Every art form has its own mode of expression. Don't try to write poetry, make beautiful music or paint pictures with your camera. Make use of its virtues, observe its limitations, and don't bother to argue with painters who look down their noses at you. Much of our awareness of the world's infinite complexity comes to us through the preceptions of sensitive photographers."

Fichte says he came to photography "by way of the box camera . . . touched a camera with f-stops and shutter speeds very briefly when I was 19, had two or three brief affairs with cameras between 24 and 29. After that, a long photographic blank until 1957,when I was 44. Then, suddenly, a twin-lens reflex, light meter, gadget bag and all the rest. I was hooked, and I've never regretted it."

Silver Exhibit 17-18th Century At Albany Art

An outstanding exhibition of 17th and 18th century silver will be held at the Albany Institute of History and Art in March and April. It will open Sunday, March 15, with a preview for members of the Institute. The show called "Albany Silver, 1660-1825," will be partly from the Institute's own collection and and partly borrowed from other museums and private collections. The exhibitions will continue through the month of April.

With but a few exceptions, the silver on exhibition will be by Albany silversmiths of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Though not comparable in quantity of production to such silversmithing centers as New York, Boston and Philadelphia, Albany, both before and after the Revolutionary War and through the first quarter of the nineteenth century, was producing silver comparable in beauty of design and craftsmanship to that of the larger cities.

Many Represented

Silversmiths represented include Jacob Cuyler, Shepherd and Boyd, Peter Van Dyck, Basset and Warford, Koenraet Ten Eyck, Barent Ten Eyck, John Cluet, Isaac Hutton, Jacob Lansing, Jacobus Vander Spiegel, Myer Myers and others. There will be a few pieces of silver by smiths in other cities, who were commissioned to make the pieces for Albany.

Those museums lending silver are: The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of the American Indian, the Los Angeles County Museum, the Addison Gallery of American Art, the Detroit Institute of Arts, Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, the Henry Francis DuPont Winterthur Museum, New York Historical Society, Sleepy Hollow Restorations, Wadsworth Atheneum, Yale University Art Gallery and others.

The exhibition has been organized by Norman S. Rice, Curator of the Institute, who will subsequently produce a catalog on Albany silver, based on this exhibition.

Bearsville Dancing School Now Closed

Madame Manorska of Bearsville, an internationally known danseuse, announces that her dancing school will be closed for three weeks, from March 16 through April 4.

During this time, she and her daughter, Angelica, will fly to Paris for an Easter vacation. Classes for children and adults will resume again on April 6 and will continue all through the summer.

Senior Citizens Club Sets Musical Program

A musical program has been planned for the monthly meeting of the Woodstock Senior Citizens on Tuesday, March 17, at the Overlook Methodist Church hall.

All persons 60 years and older are invited to attend. The Senior Citizens meet every third Tuesday of the month at the Overlook hall.

Overlook Church News and Notes

The Rev. James W. Cook will have as his sermon topic "Journey to Jerusalem" at Overlook Methodist Church on Sunday, March 15. Baptism of infants and reception of new members will be included in the worship service. The hour of worship is 11 a. m. during which a nursery is provided. Sunday School is at 9:45 for classes Primary through Adults and at 10:45 for Beginners and Kindergarten children.

The senior choir meets for rehearsal directly after the worship service on Sunday morning, and the junior choir practices on Thursday evenings at 6:45. For the young people of the church the Junior High MYF meets from 5 to 7 p. m. in the Church Hall, and the Senior High MYF from 6:30 to 7:30 in the church.

The Union Lenten Service for Sunday, March 15 will be at the Reformed Church. The Rev. Norman Krapf will speak on the Relevance of the Church for Today.

Church Calendar

Thursday, March 12—Building committee meeting at the home of Earl Jones with the architect, Arthur Silver.

Monday, March 16—Education Commission meeting at 8 p. m. in the church hall; Adult Membership Class, 8 p. m. in the parsonage.

Tuesday, March 17—Commission on Membership and Evangelism at 8 p. m. at the home of John Franz.

Wednesday, March 18—Church league bowling, 6:45 p. m.

CC Will Elect Three Directors

Three members will be elected to the Board of Directors at the monthly meeting of the Woodstock Township Chamber of Commerce on Thursday at 8 p. m. at Deanie's.

Six nominations for the three posts were made at the February meeting: Gordon Anderson, Warren Marr, Adolph Heckeroth, James Post, Irving Kalish, William West, Sr. Election of line officers will be held later.

In addition to the election of directors there will be reports from various committees and a discussion of problems affecting the businessmen.

Helen Gerardia Busy With Shows

Helen Gerardia, painter and printmaker of Woodstock and New York, is having one-man shows during the month of March in casein at the Shippenburg State College in Pennsylvania and in graphics at South Dakota State Colleg and Tuskegee Institute at the Carver Museum in Alabama.

She is showing in New York at the National Arts Club with the National Society of Painters in Casein and in the 25th Annual National Print Show at the Smithsonian Institute.

A large oil painting has just gone into the collection of the Phoenix Museum in Arizona.

Christian Science Theme Is 'Substance'

Spiritual "Substance" will be the subject at all Christian Science church services next Sunday.

Responsive Reading will include this passage from II Corinthians (4:18): "We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter" (p. 301).

Church services in Woodstock are held at 11 a. m. on Sundays and at 8 p. m. on Wednesdays. Sunday school convenes at 11 a. m. Nursery facilities are provided for children of pre-Sunday school age.

Post Office Exhibit Lists Six Artists

Six prominent Woodstock artists are featured in the March monthly art exhibit at the Woodstock Post Office.

The list includes Stanley Crane, Cornelia Hartman, Jerry Jerominek, Bernard Steffen, Dudley Summers, Stephanie Godwin.

Chairman for the month is Dudley Summers.

Says IRS Scandal Costs $3 Million, More Arrests Due

NEW YORK (AP)—A government prosecutor says the tax refund bribery scandal in Internal Revenue Service offices here has cost the United States $3 million in revenue. So far, 32 persons have been arrested, seven Tuesday.

Asst. U.S. Atty. William H. Sperling, who gave the $3 million figure, said more arrests are expected.

Government investigators say the purported scheme was for IRS income tax auditors to overlook discrepancies on returns —for a price.

The actual bribing apparently was done by accountants or lawyers, 17 of whom have been arrested and so charged. The bribes are said to have ranged up to $500.

The seven persons arrested Tuesday were IRS employes from the New York City area, bringing to 15 the number of them charged in the case.

Chamber to Meet Thursday Night

John F. Schuehler, president of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, said today he regretted the necessity of postponing the regular meeting of the board of directors scheduled for Tuesday night because of the weather. A large number of important items were on the agenda and the meeting will take place Thursday at 7:30 in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Schuehler said that all of the 14 committees will make reports at the meeting, several involving major projects or programs to be considered by the board of directors. The meeting was postponed with considerable hesitancy because many of the directors have busy schedules and participate in numeous other community activities.

Schuehler also expressed pleasure with the excellent progress being made by the membership committee headed by Harry Kapreilian. The campaign for additional members is being held earlier than usual to enable the budget committee to prepare a 1964-65 budget and make the most effective use of available funds to promote the progress and development of the Kingston area. Memberships are the only source of income with which to carry on its promotional program.

Drivers Will Pay Higher Insurance PremiumsUpstate

NEW YORK (AP)—Sharp increases in auto liability insurance rates in major Upstate cities and a general decline in such rates in New York City went into effect today, reversing a pattern of more than 20 years standing.

The new rates will not apply to outstanding policies until they are renewed.

2 PC Over-All Drop

The rate adjustment announced Tuesday applies to policyholders insured by the 225 companies affiliated with the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the Mutual Insurance Rating Bureau. These companies write 75 per cent of the liability coverage in the state.

They estimate that the new rate structure will mean an over-all $7 million reduction in premiums for policyholders, or a 2 per cent drop.

Independent insurance compaines indicated they will follow suit.

Increased rates are most pronounced in and around major Upstate cities such as Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and Auburn. In those areas, rates were increased 7 to 26 per cent.

In several smaller cities Upstate, the rates were cut 1 to 7 per cent.

Albany County Highest

The sharpest increase in rates—26 per cent—takes effect in Albany County, not including the city of Albany.

Other hikes include 25 per cent in Glens Falls and in Niagara County (except the city of Niagara Falls, where the boost is 15 per cent), 24 per cent in Auburn, 20 in Genesee and Erie counties (except Buffalo), 19 in Buffalo and Rochester, 18 in Rochester suburbs and 16 in Cortland and Ithaca.

Auto liability insurance premiums were last revised three years ago when increases averaging 9.3 per cent were made across the state.

The new adjustments reflect the losses incurred by insurance companies since then in each of 60 areas into which the state is divided for underwriting purposes.

Goes to Senate

Measure Would Restore Watchdog Power to Juries

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Senate had before it today an Assembly - approved measure that would restore watchdog power to grand juries.

The bill, which has Gov. Rockefeller's support, won Assembly approval, 91-45, after a long debate Tuesday in which Democrats protested it was unnecessary and could be abused.

The measure would authorize grand juries to issue reports that criticize public officials for misconduct that falls short of crime.

It is similar to a Senate presentment bill, which has the backing of that house's Republican heads. It was understood that the Legislature's GOP leadership hoped to pass both versions and give Rockefeller his choice of which to sign.

Advocates of the measure introduced it in hopes of overriding a 1961 decision by the Court of Appeals holding that there was no legal authority to support the practice of issuing presentments.

Assemblyman Daniel Becker, R-Newburgh, co-sponsor of the bill, asserted that "public officials, by the very nature of their trust, should be subject to public scrutiny by a legally constituted body."

He defended his bill from attack by Democrats who complained that presentments would be used as a device to malign public officials unjustly.

Becker said that safeguards had been written into the bill.

Senator's 'Typical'

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y. gives this description of the typical American:

"A typical American is one who comes home from an Italian movie in his German car, has Brazilian coffee out of an English mug, sits down in his Danish chair and picks up a Japanese ballpoint pen to write to his congressman to support 'Buy American' legislation."

Weather - - Floods In Capsule Form

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio Valley—The Ohio River, threatening the fourth worst flood in the valley's history, drives thousands of persons from their homes in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Disaster workers rushed to Cincinnati and Louisville. Officials say 23 counties in Kentucky, 16 in Ohio and 6 in Indiana affected by flood. Property damage to run into millions of dollars. Plants closed, roads blocked, some cities under water. At least four deaths attributed to floods.

Other Midwest areas—Persons flee homes in Southern Illinois and Missouri as rivers begin overflow. Fort Wayne, Ind., in state of emergency as 11 inches of snow—largest fall since 1912 —paralyzes city. Six inches of snow in St. Louis.

South — Tornadoes rumble through northwestern Alabama. Nearly 10 inches snow strands hundreds motorists in northwestern Arkansas.

East—Ohio River floods from Pittsburgh to Wheeling, W. Va. Renovo, Pa., under 4 feet of flood water. Ohio River crests seven feet above flood stage in Pittsburgh. Violent wind storm pounds southwestern New Jersey, injuring eight persons. Washington, D.C., was hit by 50 mile-per-hour winds. Baltimore struck by windgusts up to 60 m.p.h. Snowfall ranging from 6 inches to 1 foot strikes upstate New York through central New England. DC4 cargo plane crashes during storm near Logan Airport in Boston, killing the three crew members.

Blame Fumes In Girl's Death

BALDWINSVILLE, N.Y. (AP) —A medical examiner says a 16-year-old girl probably died accidentally in a fume-laden automobile that became mired in mud near an abandoned gravel pit.

Dr. Martin F. Hilfinger, medical examiner of Onondaga County, said Tuesday that Doreen Mae Williams of Solvay had died of carbon - monoxide poisoning.

The girl's body was found Monday and the county sheriff's department lodged a charge of misdemeanor rape against Charles W. Taggert, 19, of nearby Warners. The youth's appeal for help led to discovery of the body.

First Deputy Sheriff Donald Stoughton said the youth had signed a statement saying that he had been intimate with the girl.

An investigation by the sheriff's department was under way.

Taggert pleaded innocent at his arraignment Monday night before a justice of the peace in Camillus. Another hearing was set for March 27.

Taggert was released Tuesday on bail, which was reduced from $2,500 to $500.

The 42-year-old prince said the U.S. suggested creating a frontier delimitation committee instead.

"The American counterproposal constitutes an immense dupery absolutely unacceptable and inadmissible," he said. "The delimitation of the Cambodian frontiers is not to be done over."

Robertson Will Serve in Chamber Member Drive

Joseph W. Robertson, assistant vice president of the Kingston Trust Company, has been named as vice chairman of the Industrial Division of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce new member drive which starts Monday, March 16.

In making this announcement today, Harry Kapreilian, general chairman of the campaign, also said that a kick-off breakfast meeting for the workers will take place at the Governor Clinton Hotel, Monday morning.

Robertson has been active in numerous community affairs. He is president of the Kingston Boy's Club and chairman of the Pepsi Cola Scholarship fund from which awards are made to winning contestants at the Miss New York State Pageant. He also has taken an active part in several fund drives as well as being affiliated with the State Pageant since it was awarded to Kingston six years ago.

Kapreilian said today that the goal of the Chamber of Commerce membership drive is to enroll 100 new memberships for the fiscal year of 1964-65 which starts May 1. It is anticipated that the largest percentage of this number will be new memberships with some from increased support by present members subscribing for additional duplicate memberships.

Link Apology

advertently crossed the demarcation line between the Federal Republic (West Germany) and East Germany."

This was the second incident of this kind in six weeks and the wording of the U.S. protest after the Soviet destruction of a U.S. T39 jet trainer on Jan. 28 was much harsher. All three men in the trainer were killed.

At that time Tyler made no apology and denounced the Soviet Union's shooting down of the T39 as "a callous and inexcusably brutal act of violence against an unarmed aircraft."

There was no explanation here of the much softer wording of Tuesday night's statement. There was some suggestion that U.S. officials were puzzled, if not embarrassed, by the fact that the RB66B with a pilot and two navigators aboard had strayed across the dividing line in Germany and gotten over Communist territory.

Suggestion of Puzzle

There was no explanation of how this happened. The previous incident was also unexplained.

The Air Force said the twin jet aircraft was on a routine training mission from Toul-Rosieres, France, and that the crew had been briefed to fly a practice mission over West Germany.

Before takeoff, the Air Force told The Associated Press here, "emergency procedures near the border were reviewed and crews advised that, if there was any disorientation near the border, to immediately take up a westerly heading" away from the Communist area.

The RB66B was last spotted near the central Berlin air corridor, one of the lanes reserved for Allied planes flying over Communist territory between Berlin and West Germany, an Air Force announcement said.

A civilian pilot said he saw what looked like an attack dive by a Soviet-made MIG17. He said he saw a flash as if the MIG had fired its rockets. He reported he was not able to see the target.

Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: A short time ago we were involved in a minor collision with our car and the other driver got a small bump on his head. He said he was all right so we didn't report it to our insurance agent. Friends tell us complications could result from the bump and we could be in trouble. What would you advise?

ANSWER: The bump constitutes a personal injury and should be reported immediately to your insurance agent.
